(Resolution No. 100258)

RESOLUTION

Recognizing and Celebrating Telemundo Philadelphia's and the Please Touch Museum's Second Annual Día del Niño, and Declaring May 1st, 2010 as Día del Niño in The City of Philadelphia.

WHEREAS, Día del Niño, or Children's Day, is an annual event at Philadelphia's Please Touch Museum which provides an opportunity for youth in the Latino community, as well as all of Philadelphia's children, to explore youth activities across cultures and across the world; and

WHEREAS, Día del Niño offers Philadelphia's children the opportunity to enjoy and explore a variety of activities, such as music, dancing and games, which engage children through interactive educational opportunities; and

WHEREAS, The 2010 Día del Niño will celebrate Philadelphia's cultural diversity within the arts and the Latino community by offering Aztec and Flamenco dancing, Puerto Rican folk dances, a puppet theater with children's stories, and also a unique opportunity for children to experience television reporting through an interactive reporting studio provided by Telemundo; and

WHEREAS, The 2nd Annual is sponsored by Telemundo Philadelphia, The Philadelphia Please Touch Museum, and a host of other contributing organizations including holaciudad!, Goya, HCCS, Kidz Partners, CHIP, McDonalds, Philadelphia Kixx, El Sol Newspaper, Mega, ASPIRA, Monarch House, Congress, TOGETHER Chilean Consulate, Cultural Roots Latin American, and the Puerto Rican Workshop; and

WHEREAS, The 2nd Annual Día del Niño will take place on May 1st, 2010 at the Philadelphia Please Touch Museum.
