RESOLUTION

Calling on the City Council Committee on Education to hold hearings on Prayer in Philadelphia Public Schools.

WHEREAS, Students are free to pray alone or in groups as long as the activity is not disruptive and does not infringe on the rights of others; and

WHEREAS, The First Amendment to the Constitution requires that Congress shall make no law respecting an establishment of religion, or prohibiting the free exercise thereof; and

WHEREAS, Students have the right to initiate religious activities with other students including prayer, religious forums or discussions and faith-based clubs; and

WHEREAS, Schools should respect the right of students to engage in religious activity and discussion; and

WHEREAS, Prayer can promote more virtuous living and may have a positive impact on student behavior in schools; and

WHEREAS, Encouraging students to not only pray for themselves but to pray for others can cause students to think more of their fellow classmates than of themselves, to lead lives of thankfulness; and

WHEREAS, Exercising compassion and understanding when engaging with other faith communities is important to achieve harmony and right relationships with others including students, teachers, parents, school administration and community leaders; and
