

City of Philadelphia

City Council
Chief Clerk's Office
402 City Hall
Philadelphia, PA 19107

BILL NO. 110565
(As Amended, 10/25/11)

Introduced September 8, 2011

Councilmember Clarke

Referred to the Committee on Public Health and Human Services

AN ORDINANCE

Amending Chapter 10-100 of The Philadelphia Code, entitled "Animals," to establish provisions for the reporting of wild raccoons, and to provide for the manner of their abatement, all under certain terms and conditions.

THE COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF PHILADELPHIA HEREBY ORDAINS:

SECTION 1. Chapter 10-100 of The Philadelphia Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

CHAPTER 10-100. ANIMALS.

* * *

§ 10-106.1. Raccoons.

(1) Any person who [sees] observes a [live] raccoon anywhere on property under that person's control, engaged in any nuisance activity as defined herein [that is at large in any location in the City shall immediately] may report such raccoon and its location to the Animal Control Agency.

(2) Raccoons reported pursuant to subsection (1) shall be abated pursuant to regulations promulgated by the Animal Control Agency. Any such regulations shall contain provisions for the immediate employment of abatement procedures that are proven, effective, [lawful abatement procedures] lawful, and, to the extent practicable, non-lethal.

City of Philadelphia

BILL NO. 110565, as amended continued

(3) "Nuisance Activity" for purposes of this Section shall mean any of the following:

- (a) A raccoon destroying or damaging personal property.*
- (b) A raccoon disturbing the peaceful enjoyment of the property by anyone inhabiting or visiting the property.*
- (c) A raccoon that is obviously sick or diseased and poses a threat to human, farm animal, or pet safety.*

SECTION 2. This Ordinance shall take effect immediately.

Explanation:

[Brackets] indicate matter deleted.

Italics indicate new matter added.