(Resolution No. 020195)

RESOLUTION

Congratulating Strawberry Mansion Boys' Basketball Team.

WHEREAS, On Saturday, March 9, 2002, at Temple University's Liacouras Center, the Strawberry Mansion Knights emerged the victor in the Public League title game against Northeast High School, with a 73-62 final score; and

WHEREAS, The championship was the second in three seasons for Strawberry Mansion, which also prevailed in the 2000 title game. A ten-point effort from senior forward Dawud Morris in the first two quarters put the Knights ahead halftime by 34-27. The opponents quickly came back with a burst that put them ahead with a 38-34 score; and

WHEREAS, In a thrilling third quarter, the lead changed hands four times. However, in the closing moments of the game with the score tied at 62, and only one minute and two seconds remaining, Morgan-Hines completed a three-pointer to help the Knights to victory as the Public League's best team; and

WHEREAS, Strawberry Mansion star Maureece Rice scored a team-high 21 points; and

RESOLVED, BY THE COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF PHILADELPHIA, That we hereby honor and congratulate each and every member of the Strawberry Mansion High School Boys' Basketball Team for winning the Public League Championship. We
