RESOLUTION

Proclaiming October 3rd and 4th of 2009 as “Praise is the Cure Weekend” in Philadelphia.

The City Council of Philadelphia designates October 3rd and 4th of 2009 as “Praise is the Cure Weekend” in Philadelphia and encourages that all help those women and their families in managing their health and familiarizing themselves with cancer treatment options available to them.

WHEREAS, October is Breast Cancer Awareness Month and breast cancer is the most common cancer among women in the United States; and

WHEREAS, Sadly African American women are dying from this disease at higher rates than all other ethnic groups; and

WHEREAS, The purpose of Praise is the Cure (PITC) is to educate underserved communities on the prevention and treatment options to help stop the spread of breast cancer, as well as celebrate and provide ongoing support to breast cancer survivors; and

WHEREAS, PITC has evolved into a year-round campaign whose mission is to “Motivate, Educate and Encourage African American women to obtain screenings and treatments”; and

WHEREAS, Since its inception, PITC has reached over 30,000 Philadelphia area residents and raised in excess of $100,000 to support year-round program outreach efforts; and

WHEREAS, The capstone of the year round campaign is “Praise is the Cure Weekend,” which will be presented as a Weekend of Hope, Health & Healing on October 3-4, 2009 in Celebration of Breast Cancer Awareness Month; and
