Room 402, City Hall
Philadelphia

(Resolution No. 030264)

RESOLUTION

Also naming the 1400 Block of West McFerran Street as "T.R. Washington Way" in honor of Dr. T. R. Washington.

WHEREAS, West McFerran Street is a small side street located next to the historic Second Baptist Church of Nicetown; and

WHEREAS, Dr. T.R. Washington was the pastor of the historic church for over fifty years; and

WHEREAS, West McFerran Street is rarely used by motorists other than those attending services in the church sanctuary; and

WHEREAS, The designation of the street would be an honor to the church congregation, the church ministry and the Nicetown community as a remembrance of the legacy of Dr. Washington in a permanent way; and

WHEREAS, Second Baptist Church of Nicetown has been and continues to be a pillar of the community and would be honored to have the street dedicated for its 110th Anniversary in the year 2003; now therefore RESOLVED, BY THE COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF PHILADELPHIA, That West McFerran Street, which runs perpendicular between Broad Street, Pike Street and the 3800 block of Germantown Avenue be designated T.R. Washington Way. That appropriate signage is placed below the existing street sign in memory of the late Dr. T.R. Washington.
