MICHAEL A. DECKER, CHIEF CLERK

3/22/18 - STATED - INVOCATION

COUNCIL PRESIDENT CLARKE: Good morning. We're going to get started, if we can minimize the conversation. Thank you.

We have established a quorum and we will now have our invocation. And this morning we have a special guest to do our invocation. We will have Councilman Kenyatta Johnson.

I'd ask all members, guests, and visitors to please rise.

(Councilmembers, guests, and visitors rise.)

COUNCILMAN JOHNSON: As a young man, my grandmother taught me that greater is he that is in need and he that is in the world, and I want to thank all my colleagues who are working in this body on behalf of those who need a voice, on behalf of those who are in need.

Can we please bow our heads.

Dear Heavenly Father, I just want to thank you for getting us up this morning and watching over us, Lord, and watching over our families, Lord.
3/22/18 - STATED - INVOCATION

And, Lord, I pray that you just look out for the leadership here in the City, from members of City Council up to the Mayor, Lord.

Lord, I pray that you always guide us and encourage us and strengthen us as we go about as advocating for those most in need but, most importantly, Lord, giving us the wisdom to make decisions that's all about the people as opposed to ourselves.

Lord, I pray that you always continue to encourage us and motivate us to work in transparency and decency but, most importantly, continue to put the needs of this city above ours.

In all things we ask in your name, in Jesus' name we pray.

Amen.

(Amen.)

COUNCIL PRESIDENT CLARKE:

Thank you so much, Councilman.

COUNCILMAN JOHNSON: You're
3/22/18 - STATED - APPROVAL OF JOURNAL

welcome, sir.

COUNCIL PRESIDENT CLARKE:
Thank you. The next order of business is the approval of the Journal of the meeting of Thursday, March 15, 2018, and the Chair recognizes Councilman Greenlee.

COUNCILMAN GREENLEE: Thank you, Mr. President. I move that the Journal of the meeting of Thursday, March 15th, 2018 be approved.

(Duly seconded.)

COUNCIL PRESIDENT CLARKE:
Thank you. It has been moved and properly seconded that the Journal of the meeting of Thursday, March 15th, 2018 stand approved.

All those in favor say aye.

(Aye.)

COUNCIL PRESIDENT CLARKE:
Those opposed?

(No response.)

COUNCIL PRESIDENT CLARKE: The ayes have it, and that Journal is approved.
3/22/18 - STATED - LEAVES

The next order of business is requests for leave of absence, and the Chair recognizes Councilman Henon.

COUNCILMAN HENON: Thank you, Mr. President. On behalf of the majority, there are no requests of leave of absence today.

COUNCIL PRESIDENT CLARKE: The Chair thanks the gentleman.

The Chair now recognizes Councilman O'Neill.

COUNCILMAN O'NEILL: Thank you, Mr. President. On behalf of the republicans, there are no requests for leave of absence.

COUNCIL PRESIDENT CLARKE: The Chair thanks the gentleman.

At this time, I would like to dispense with the regular order of business and I would like to welcome and I would particularly like to thank everybody who has come down in these challenging weather times to come to see your government in action. So I just want to say today we genuinely appreciate you being here. We hope that your stay here today is a pleasurable one, so much so that you come back again. Again, thank you for being here.

At this time, the Chair recognizes Councilwoman Reynolds Brown, who will present a resolution honoring Monica Malpass. Would Ms. Malpass and those accompanying her please join the Councilwoman at the podium.

(Councilmembers and guests approached podium.)

COUNCIL PRESIDENT CLARKE: And joining Councilwoman Reynolds Brown, we have Councilwoman Blackwell, Councilman Greenlee, Councilwoman Quinones-Sanchez. And we'd ask, Mr. Diaz, could you come up, please.

And Councilman Green.

COUNCILWOMAN BROWN: Good morning to colleagues, guests, and visitors. Welcome to our annual celebration of Women's History Month. On the occasion of celebrating Women's History Month, we are thrilled and delighted to bring to you another woman whom I believe walks on the water backwards, with high heels on, blindfolded, all done with style, discipline, and grace.
3/22/18 - STATED - PRESENTATIONS

The women of City Council are delighted and pleased to honor and recognize the career of Monica Malpass on the occasion of her 30th year anniversary as a journalist for 6ABC Philadelphia.

(Applause.)

COUNCILWOMAN BROWN: Whereas, Monica Malpass, Co-Anchor of 6ABC Action News, joined the station in January of 1988 and has since become one of Philadelphia's most trusted and beloved broadcasters; and

COUNCILWOMAN BLACKWELL: Whereas, Monica Malpass is host of 6ABC's news program "Inside Story," an award-winning political roundtable, along with anchoring several other public service agreements with others on 6ABC; and

Whereas, a native of North Carolina, Monica Malpass began her career as a reporter and anchor for WXII-TV in Winston-Salem and later on WCHL-AM in Chapel Hill; and

COUNCILMAN GREENLEE: Whereas,

after receiving her B.A. in Journalism from the University of North Carolina - Chapel Hill, Malpass earned her M.A. in Political Science from Villanova University in Pennsylvania. Her extensive education in public affairs also includes two honorary Doctoral Degrees and graduation from the Brookings Institution's "Inside Washington" Program; and

Whereas, her esteemed reputation as a journalist has earned Malpass exclusive interviews with some of the nation's most prominent politicians and public figures. Over the course of her career, these figures have included:
former Presidents Barack Obama and Gerald Ford; former Vice Presidents Joseph Biden and George H.W. Bush, who I think was President also; and Secretaries Hillary Clinton and Colin Powell; reporters and anchors Oprah Winfrey, Diane Sawyer, Barbara Walters, and Helen Thomas; and actors Al Pacino and Diane Keaton; and COUNCILWOMAN SANCHEZ: Take a point of privilege and just thank her. I joined her with Councilwoman Blondell Reynolds Brown at the Press Club recently to listen to her story, and she was just as wonderful in talking about all of the great achievements in her life and how her failures have been her motivation.

So I want to thank you again for joining us and all the young women who had the honor of being with you that evening.

Whereas, Malpass has interviewed every Governor, U.S. Senator, Congressperson, State Senator, State Representative from the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, the States of Delaware, New Jersey for the past 30 years; and

Whereas, as an anchor for 6ABC, Malpass has covered notable events in the City of Philadelphia and around the world. She is a great ambassador for us. Locally, she covered the Eagles Super Bowl game in 2005, Pope Francis' visit to the U.S. in 2015. She has emceed the Pennsylvania Conference for Women on numerous occasions. Malpass has represented Philadelphia nationally and internationally, reporting on the inaugurations of President George W. Bush, Bill Clinton, the presidential campaign of Hillary Clinton, and the funeral of Princess Diana in London; and

COUNCILMAN TAUBENBERGER:

Whereas, Malpass has earned many awards in recognition of her influence and accomplishments as a journalist, beginning with her naming to the Pennsylvania Honor Roll of Women in 1996 and earning 1st Place for Spot News from the Pennsylvania Association of Broadcasters in 1998. She was later named Broadcaster of the Year by Women in Communications, Best Female Broadcaster by the Main Line Today magazine, and has earned 1st Place by the Society of Professional Journalists over several years. In 2006, she was inducted in the Broadcast Pioneer Hall of Fame in Philadelphia; and

COUNCILMAN GREEN: Whereas, a dedicated public servant on and off the air, Malpass has served on the Board of Directors at the Children's Hospital of Philadelphia and the Children's Seashore House. She is also a member of the Union League of Philadelphia and volunteers with numerous local charities; now, therefore, be it

COUNCILWOMAN BROWN: Resolved, by this Council of the City of Philadelphia, that we hereby honor, recognize, celebrate, and lift up the extraordinary career of Monica Malpass on the occasion of her 30th year anniversary
3/22/18 – STATED – PRESENTATIONS

as a journalist for Philadelphia ABC News.

Further resolved, that an engrossed copy of this resolution be presented to Monica Malpass as the sincere sentiments of this legislative body.

In closing, I think your career is most captured by one of my favorite writers, Maya Angelou. A woman who is convinced that she deserves to accept only the best challenges herself to give the best. Then you have lived phenomenally.

Congratulations on an extraordinary career.

(Applause.)

COUNCILWOMAN BROWN: Of course, you know we have a wonderful tradition, and we want to bring up Nelson Diaz to present a symbol representing the City of Philadelphia, extraordinary person, true mentor to young people, exceptional career.

Congratulations.

(Applause.)

COUNCIL PRESIDENT CLARKE: And

the Chair recognizes Ms. Malpass for remarks.

MS. MALPASS: Thank you so much. I'm truly humbled just that you're here, and my son Jake is here with me, and it brings me great honor to be all of the things that you mentioned, but most especially a mom to three sons. And the other two are seven, so I didn't think you were quite ready for both of them.

Just briefly, I want to say that it has been a true privilege to work in Philadelphia and cover the news here, including many of you, for 30 years. I am so grateful to 6ABC for all the opportunities to do the stories and to make those inroads in journalism, but more than that, I'm grateful to my friends who are here, my family, and to the people who have supported me all these years in good times and bad, and I'm glad to say they're mostly good.

So thank you very, very much for taking me into your hearts, into your homes and making me a Philadelphian. I appreciate it.

(Applause.)

COUNCIL PRESIDENT CLARKE:
Council will be at ease.

(Council at ease.)

COUNCIL PRESIDENT CLARKE:
Thank you, and congratulations one more time.

Our next order of business is communications, and the Chair requests that the Sergeant-of-Arms delivers the messages from the Mayor to the Chief Clerk.

Mr. Decker, please read those messages from the Mayor.

CHIEF CLERK: To the President and members of the Council of the City of Philadelphia, pursuant to Sections 4-604 and 2-307 of the Home Rule Charter, I am today transmitting to the Council the recommendation of the City Planning Commission on the following bill: Bill No. 180170.

And I am pleased to advise you that on March 20, 2018, I signed the following bills which were passed by Council at its session on March 8, 2018:

(Aye.)

COUNCIL PRESIDENT CLARKE:
Those opposed?
(No response.)

COUNCIL PRESIDENT CLARKE: The ayes have it, and these bills will be placed on our First Reading Calendar today.

That concludes our reports from committee, and the next order of business is the Calendar.

I note that the bills just reported from committee with a favorable recommendation and suspension of the rules have been deemed to have had a first reading. These bills and resolutions will be on our Second Reading and Final Passage Calendar at our next session of Council.

As there are no additional bills on the First Reading Calendar, the Chair recognizes Councilman Henon for the purpose of calling up bills and resolutions that are on the Final Passage Calendar today.

COUNCILMAN HENON: Thank you, Mr. President. The following resolutions and bills are being called up for Second Reading and Final Passage Calendars today: Bill Nos. 180243, 180245, 180250, 180251, 171109-A, 180012, 180170. All other resolutions and bills are being held.

COUNCIL PRESIDENT CLARKE:

Thank you, Councilman.

Before considering these bills and resolutions on the Final Passage Calendar today, we will have our public comment session. If you are interested in testifying on a bill or resolution that's on the Final Passage Calendar today, if you haven't already signed up, you may sign up at the table to my left.

When your name is called, you will go to the middle of the Chamber. There is a podium. There's a device on that podium. When the light turns green, it will be your time to speak. When the light turns yellow, you will have 30 seconds to conclude your remarks. When the light turns red, we'd ask that you please adhere to our guidelines and conclude your remarks. You will be given three minutes to testify.

Mr. Decker, please call the first name on the list.

CHIEF CLERK: Tony Spadaro, commenting on 180251.

(Witness approached podium.)

COUNCIL PRESIDENT CLARKE: Good morning.

MR. SPADARO: Good morning. I want to thank City Council for letting me testify today. My name is Tony Spadaro and I'm a fourth-year medical student at the University of Pennsylvania. I am also a national board member of Students for a National Health Plan, the largest health professional student single-payer advocacy organization in the country. We represent over 1,000 health professional students, over 50 universities, including the medical schools here in Philadelphia. In my short medical career, I've seen too many patients suffer under the current inequitable private health insurance system we have. As a patient with sickle cell disease, you spend many weeks out of the year in pain hospitalized, keeping her from living her fullest potential, all because she couldn't see an outpatient pain specialist because she couldn't find one that would take her insurance.

I've had a patient with diabetes and back pain who couldn't work because of her back pain. She needed surgery for her back pain, but couldn't -- the surgeon couldn't operate on her because her diabetes was poorly controlled. Her diabetes was poorly controlled because she couldn't afford the co-pays on her diabetes medication that I tried to prescribe her.

In what world does this system make sense?

I take my professional responsibilities very seriously and always try to do the best for my patients. Unfortunately, the current system has my hands tied and causes patients to suffer, all for a higher profit of insurance companies.

As the future of the healthcare profession, I am fighting for a more just and more equitable system, which is why I am glad to see Philadelphia City Council make this commitment to Medicare for all. I hope the City Council also shows their commitment by holding town halls in their districts around the City for their constituents to express their support for Medicare for all so that politicians at the federal level can see Philadelphia's support for this.

By fixing the inefficient multi-payer system we currently have, we could rein in healthcare costs, which are currently greater than 17 percent of our GDP, more than any other country, yet we lag behind in terms of healthcare outcomes. We could use the money we save from a single-payer system to provide high-quality insurance for everyone and get rid of the barriers like co-pays, deductibles, limited networks that lead to unnecessary suffering for patients.

Health professional students in Philadelphia and across the country support this resolution, and we want to let the federal government and the City government know that they need to act to protect our patients' health.

COUNCIL PRESIDENT CLARKE:
Thank you for your testimony.

(Applause.)

CHIEF CLERK: Willie
Singletary, commenting on 180251.

(Witness approached podium.)

COUNCIL PRESIDENT CLARKE: Good
morning.

MR. SINGLETARY: Good morning.

My name is Willie Singletary and I'm here with Healthcare for All.

Would you all stand up here today who is here to support this bill.

(Audience members standing.)
MR. SINGLETARY: I believe that healthcare is a right for all people, especially our children, regardless of their ability to pay. Nobody should go without proper medical care in the most powerful free world.

Everyone knows that in America that healthcare is -- it was broken. It was broken before Affordable Care Act and it's still broken even afterwards, even though we made some progress. It forces millions of people to pay for insurance they can't afford to use because deductibles are so high. Millions are still left without coverage, and costs are skyrocketing for everyone.

There has always been a simple solution to our healthcare mess: cover everyone with a one-payer system. Private insurance companies have been allowed by generations of corrupt politicians to become monopolies with the power to extort many hundreds of billions of dollars from the American people each
The health insurance industry spent $150 billion in 2016 in lobby expenses alone to protect their monopoly, money that could have been spent on providing care and saving lives.

And as I testify today, I strongly support healthcare for all Philadelphians, Pennsylvanians, and the entire United States of America. Healthcare is not a right -- is a right. It's a right and not a privilege. With one payer system, we could have a good health coverage, increase the number of doctors and care facilities, and stop big pharma from gouging American consumers.

I thank you, Mr. President, but we have to come together and get everyone covered in the United States and, more importantly, Philadelphia.

(Applause.)

COUNCIL PRESIDENT CLARKE:

Thank you for your testimony.

CHIEF CLERK: Natalie Midiri,
commenting on 180251.

(Witness approached podium.)

COUNCIL PRESIDENT CLARKE: Good morning.

MS. MIDIRI: My name is Natalie Midiri and I work for an organization called Healthcare for All Pennsylvania. We are a group dedicated to building a constituency for single-payer healthcare across the State of Pennsylvania in red districts and in blue.

Many people in this room are going to make the moral, medical, and economic case for single-payer healthcare, but I want to focus on the political case for single payer, which is too often shoved to the side.

For too long, public officials have readily dismissed single payer, the divisive issue that threatens to make solidarity within the democratic party and, therefore, their reasoning is that we must settle for affordable instead of comprehensive healthcare to ward off further attacks on working people. To that I say, as long as we have a healthcare system that is broken, that works for the few and not the many, healthcare will continue to be a divisive political issue in this country. Like we saw with Donald Trump's election, many will flock to whichever candidate voices their family struggles around healthcare the loudest.

We must have a solution for this problem and solve the issue of our current healthcare system's politics being unsustainable. As long as municipalities and counties across the State of Pennsylvania must keep pace with rising healthcare costs, at the expense of funding our schools and repairing our crumbling infrastructure, then voters in Pennsylvania will fail to see the value in a well-funded public sector, and the politics of our current healthcare system will be unsustainable.

Thirteen million Americans cast their vote in support of Senator Bernie Sanders' Medicare for All platform. Single payer is moral, it is economically just and responsible, it is immensely popular, and it is one of the key political issues that can unite a working-class political base in this state.

I urge every member of City Council not just to vote in support of this resolution, but also to join our coalition, help us build the movement for single payer right here in Philadelphia by working with us to hold town halls in all of your districts.

Thank you very much for your time.

(Appause.)

COUNCIL PRESIDENT CLARKE: Thank you for your testimony.

CHIEF CLERK: Marty Harrison,

commenting on 180251.

(Witness approached podium.)

MS. HARRISON: Hi. My name is Marty Harrison. I'm a nurse at Temple University Hospital and a member of my union there, PASNAP.

Hi. My name is Marty Harrison. I'm a nurse at Temple University Hospital and a member of my union there, the Pennsylvania Association of Staff Nurses and Allied Professionals.

We and our technical and professional colleagues at the bedside and across the City provide healthcare. We maintain blood pressures. We clear airways. We hold hands. We wipe tears. The insurance companies provide no healthcare. The insurance companies provide only payment for that care.

As clinicians like Tony, I take my role as a patient advocate very seriously, and that role compels us to bring the fight for safe and effective patient care out of our hospitals, clinics, and other facilities and into places like City Council to say unequivocally that improved Medicare for all, without regard to income, employment or legal status, is what's best for all patients in Philadelphia.

Philadelphia is home to a wealth of world-renowned healthcare institutions that provide cutting-edge therapies and do next-generation research. We have the highly skilled, experienced, educated workforce to do those things, and we should be proud of this excellent tradition.

But Philadelphia is also the poorest of the ten big U.S. cities and demonstrates stark healthcare disparities. I know we were all dismayed by the recent statistics about disparate, wildly disparate, life expectancies in Philadelphia by zip code.

So though we have the resources to provide excellent care to every Philadelphian, what's missing is the political will to let us do our jobs and provide that care. We call on City Council to pass this resolution and, in fact, do more to take the next concrete steps to make Medicare for all a reality in Philadelphia.

Thank you.

(Applause.)

COUNCIL PRESIDENT CLARKE:

Thank you for your testimony.

CHIEF CLERK: Rachel Ambrose,

commenting on Councilwoman Gym's resolution introduced today on Transgender Day of Visibility.

(Witness approached podium.)

MS. AMBROSE: Good morning, and thank you for this opportunity --

COUNCIL PRESIDENT CLARKE: Good

morning.

MS. AMBROSE: -- to join you on this wonderful spring day in the City of Brotherly Love and Sisterly Affection. I am proud and honored to be here today to represent the LGBTQ Home for Hope and as a voice of the transgender community.

My name is Rachel Ambrose and I am a transgender woman. I am a feminist, a lesbian, a musician, a volunteer, a positive voice, and a proud parent of three great children, one of whom is part of our LGBT rainbow.
3/22/18 - STATED - PUBLIC COMMENT

I came to Philadelphia 12 years ago a much different person than the one you see before you today. I was a lost and conflicted soul pretending to be the man that the world saw, caught up in self-destruction, searching for an answer to who am I.

In Philadelphia, I found myself and the city in which I could prosper. If this city was not the diverse, welcoming city that it is, I may not have been here today.

This resolution of visibility today marks another milestone for the City and its transgender community. We have made much progress and seen great strides towards equality. Yet there is much more hard work ahead.

With the current hostile political climate in Washington towards LGBT rights and the rights of many marginalized populations, we find our progress yet again under assault. Trans women of color in particular are bearing the large portion of this hatred. Yet we have persisted, and we must remain persistent.

We are not the false stereotypes that many use as weapons of discord against us. We are doctors, lawyers, police officers, nurses, and cashiers at the local grocery store. Today we are television stars, Academy Award winners and, yes, even State Senators. We are your neighbors, siblings, and parents. We are a vital piece of the mosaic of diversity that is this city.

I wish to thank the City and all those that make progress like this possible. Thank you for taking action for us and with us. With this resolution, our city stands proud, hand in hand, in the light of hope with its transgender citizens.

Thank you, Councilwoman Gym, for introducing this resolution and your fierce allyship to the transgender community. And thank you to the members of City Council for your support.

Thank you.

(Applause.)

COUNCIL PRESIDENT CLARKE: Thank you for your testimony.

CHIEF CLERK: Tierman Campbell, commenting on Councilwoman Gym's Transgender Day resolution introduced today.

(Witness approached podium.)

MS. CAMPBELL: Good morning to the members of the Council and also to the fellow Philadelphians. My name is Tierman Campbell and I feel honored to be a speaker at such a significant event as this.

I am here as a representative of the LGBTQ Home for Hope, which is a shelter and a recovery program for the LGBTQ community and also as myself, a transgender woman, who's living happily in the City that accepts and supports me.

A few years ago at the beginning of my medical transition, I thought the lack of acceptance was going to taunt me relentlessly every day. I would wait for the 23 bus and let two or three pass by, looking in the windows, judging quickly whether the group or the passengers would accept me, then finally board one very squeamishly, averting my eyes from everyone else's.

I learned quickly that many people knew about transgender people and really didn't give us a second thought. I call itself education through awareness. People here raise -- the City raised the awareness, and the people seem to have responded by reading more, asking more, noticing more.

The Transgender Day of Visibility is for me my most important day. Today's resolution says that Philadelphia wants the world to know about us and treat us with respect and dignity we deserve. Today's resolution means that this historical city recognizes transgender people as people deserving of equality. Today's resolution means that this city knows that trans people exist. And now on our special day, we can focus our attentions on the work we've done and we can celebrate all those who came before us for their contributions. We can celebrate them for practicing the most fundamental type of protest, activism through existence, while uplifting the voices of transgender individuals everywhere, fighting for visibility and living out loud.

Awareness is just the beginning and it leads to self-education, understanding, and eventually acceptance. Bigotry and hate cannot live in an environment of acceptance and caring. So thank you for raising the awareness, acting with us, and supporting visibility for our strong, brave transgender community. Philadelphia now, as in the past, sets the standard.

Thank you.

COUNCIL PRESIDENT CLARKE:

Thank you for your testimony.

(Applause.)

CHIEF CLERK: Jeremy Flamer, commenting on Councilwoman's Gym Transgender Day resolution introduced today.

(Witness approached podium.)

MS. FLAMER: Good morning, Mr. President.

COUNCIL PRESIDENT CLARKE: Good morning.

MS. FLAMER: Good morning, City Council, and good morning to the Philadelphians. My name is Jeremy Flamer.

Good morning, City Council and fellow Philadelphian citizens. It is a tremendous honor and privilege to be recognized as a trans woman of color in this magnitude. There resides in my heart a sense of healing, a sense of togetherness, and a sense of unity among people of all nationalities, nations, creed, and religions. It is a tremendous honor to stand side by side with members of City Council to represent trans women of color, whose voices are rarely heard due to unlawful death and hate crimes.

I have learned through my life experiences that I have to become the positive change that I want. I would like to cultivate this change by love, compassion, and empathy to create these positive changes in the universe.

Thank you, and God bless.

COUNCIL PRESIDENT CLARKE:

Thank you for your testimony.

(Applause.)

CHIEF CLERK: Reno Wright, commenting on Councilwoman Gym's Transgender Day resolution introduced today.
(Witness approached podium.)

MS. WRIGHT: Good morning, everyone.

COUNCIL PRESIDENT CLARKE: Good morning.

MS. WRIGHT: Thank you all.

For me, this is important just to even be here in this podium talking about Trans Visibility Day. It's like a dream come true for me. I'm a 27-year veteran of LGBT advocacy, and I remember and was here the first time we came here to just get our rights. As the gay community back then, we weren't so broken down.

But I am here today not to go for prepared notes and anything like that, but just to give you all a sense of how important this day is for the average person that's not involved with a political organization or hasn't joined a facility of any kind but just living. I'm from North Philadelphia. I'm 45 years old, and I've struggled with my gender and sexual identity since I was six years old at Frederick Douglass Elementary School, and I had to fight off the different things that society told me and what my family told me, and I had no references to think about or go to to find somebody that was like me. So I found myself personally, I found myself in the history pages of Harriet Tubman and those people who weren't labeled as women because of different secondary features they may have, being tall, big hands, you know, really strong or muscular. I happen to possess those characters.

But we were treated -- or those women were treated inhuman, indifferent, and I obtained that treatment as I grew up throughout this process.

So this Visibility Day for me kind of stems like there is recognition in our city that people like me exist, which is something that I didn't have when I was six or seven or in my teenage years struggling with puberty and gender identity. I had no reference.

So this bill today and the recognizing trans visibility means that I can have a reference, I can go somewhere, I can forget those thoughts of suicide and those attempts at suicide and feeling isolated and alone, because I have a reference, I can go somewhere.

So we were talking about healthcare. We haven't talked about mental health. We haven't talked about the hate crimes and the beating and the physical abuse. What about the mental abuse, the emotional abuse, the psychological abuse? We haven't even touched those subjects, but having a Trans Visibility Day means that we can address them in the future.

So I just wanted to put it out there that the regular person, not affiliated with any organization, is out here hoping for this day as well.

Thank you all for your time and attention.
(Applause.)

COUNCIL PRESIDENT CLARKE:

Thank you for your testimony.

CHIEF CLERK:  Joe Danihel,

commenting on 160720 and 180170.

(Witness approached podium.)

COUNCIL PRESIDENT CLARKE:  Good morning.

MR. DANIHEL:  Good morning.

This is an official decree of the people in writ of mandamus quo warranto and, as such, requires immediate action and remedy.

Every week, Council, Mayor, and others transfer private property to the government, probably illegally.

As stated in Constitution and law, you are representatives of the people. Your constituents do not authorize your clear violations of oath, Constitution, and law to steal their homes and create homelessness.

After honoring 6ABC anchors today, is fake news media allowing the creation of this homelessness by routinely refusing to cover public comment section of the City Council meetings? Why has no official or media demanded investigation or prosecution of upwards of 100 million, mostly federal taxpayer HUD money, to build a mall on my stolen home, as required by law? Was current DA in several Council meetings and is well aware of oath, Constitution and law violations? Is Commonwealth Attorney General refusing to act on numerous complaints filed by me with his office?

Laws are like Bibles. Unless they are followed, nothing changes. The constitutions requires immediate remedy of this breach of law, breach of close, breach of fiduciary duty. Your oath of office requires you to act or face prison.

41 USC 1982, 1983, 1985, 1986,
1987, 18 USC 241, 242, 2381, 2384, PA
Constitution, Article I, Sections 1
3/22/18 - STATED - PUBLIC COMMENT

through 11, 26 PA CSA 703, 705, 708, 709, 712, 713, 716, and other laws listed in SCOTUS 15-8965, 14-1330, 14-4056 appear violated.

I call for the federal and Commonwealth governments to perform their constitutional obligations to investigate and prosecute all involved in the theft and illegal deed transfer of my home, 1038 West Wyoming Avenue.

The denial of God-given 42 USC 1982 property rights for 24 years is egregious, extraordinary, oath-violating, and requires immediate remedy.

A just government must obey the rule of law. This color of law government must have its Charter to govern revoked until a constitutionally compliant government is installed.

Public servants cannot refuse their sworn duty to act any more than a fireman can refuse to fight a fire. The sovereign people require oath, Constitution, and laws be enforced, and jail is required for all who violate oath, Constitution or law.

I remind Council, it takes a lot of cooperation to create and allow monumental corruption.

COUNCIL PRESIDENT CLARKE:

Thank you for your testimony.

CHIEF CLERK: There are no other speakers on the public comment list, Mr. President.

COUNCIL PRESIDENT CLARKE:

Thank you, Mr. Decker.

That concludes our public comment session.

CHIEF CLERK: And a resolution acknowledging and recognizing Amplify Philly, a partnership of public and private organizations, that joined together to highlight Philadelphia's startup and tech community and promote Philadelphia as a hub for startups at the 2018 South by Southwest Conference & Festival in Austin, Texas, introduced by Councilman Domb.

COUNCIL PRESIDENT CLARKE: The Chair recognizes Councilman Domb.

COUNCILMAN DOMB: Thank you, Council President. I just want to recognize two people specifically in this resolution, which is Dave Silver, the Philly founder of REC and one of the organizers behind Amplify Philly. He coordinated the whole event at South by Southwest, instrumental. And Michelle Freeman, the CEO of Witty Gritty, another organizer behind Amplify Philly. They played critical roles in highlighting what Philadelphia has in technology, entrepreneurship, and civic engagement.

And with that, I'd like to move for the adoption of the resolution.

(Duly seconded.)

COUNCIL PRESIDENT CLARKE: It's been moved and properly seconded.

All those in favor say aye.

(Aye.)

Those opposed?

(No response.)

COUNCIL PRESIDENT CLARKE: The ayes have it, and that is adopted.

CHIEF CLERK: And a resolution declaring March 31, 2018 as Transgender Day of Visibility in the City of Philadelphia, introduced by Councilwoman Gym.

COUNCIL PRESIDENT CLARKE: The Chair recognizes Councilman Gym.

COUNCILWOMAN GYM: Thank you very much, Council President. I want to acknowledge my co-sponsors on this resolution, Councilmembers Green, Squilla, and Domb, and members of Council who have been incredibly supportive. I can't express any more than some of the testifiers who spoke today about the importance of what it means to honor those with the courage, tenacity, and resilience and who have been on the forefront of fighting for respect, dignity, radical love, and equitable I'm incredibly grateful to our advocacy community. I'm honored to have our two rock star champions in the City, Amber Hikes from the Office of LGBT Affairs and Rue Landau from Philadelphia PCHR, also here with us today, as well as so many other advocates, BBWC, William Way Center, who make this city as vibrant and as loving as it is.

And with that, I move for the adoption of the resolution.

(Duly seconded.)

COUNCIL PRESIDENT CLARKE: It's been moved and properly seconded.

All those in favor say aye.

(Aye.)

COUNCIL PRESIDENT CLARKE: Those opposed?

(No response.)

COUNCIL PRESIDENT CLARKE: The ayes have it, and that resolution is adopted.

(Appause.)
CHIEF CLERK: And a resolution honoring the life and activism of Rio de Janeiro City Councillor Marielle Franco, and expressing solidarity with public officials and advocates across the globe who bravely speak out for human rights, introduced by Councilwoman Gym.

COUNCIL PRESIDENT CLARKE: The Chair again recognizes Councilwoman Gym.

COUNCILWOMAN GYM: I submit for Council's consideration a resolution that honors the life and legacy and activism of Rio de Janeiro's City Councillor Marielle Franco who was assassinated last week after speaking out about extrajudicial murders, rising police and military violence, and the demand for justice for her community.

Marielle Franco was an incredible human rights advocate, a leader of the Brazilian black rights movement. She was a black single mother, a lesbian, who rose out of one of the poorest favelas of Brazil. She fought tirelessly and courageously for the rights of women, young people, those who are LGBTQ, and those who lived in her favelas. She was also the only black developmental councillor on Rio’s 51-member City Council. And when she was elected, she never stopped with her activism and legislative work, which, like her own identity, was deeply intersectional.

She was also a staunch opponent of police militarization and frequently denounced the pervasiveness of killing by police officers of innocent Brazilians, notably those from favelas and who are Afro-Brazilian. And it is with great horror and sadness that a day after calling for an end to the military police state, both she and her driver were assassinated and shot after she spoke about young women moving political structures.

Marielle’s voice will never be silenced. She speaks for all of us who believe so much in the belief of human rights and freedoms for all, who understand the power of elected office. I ask that we stand -- that we pass this resolution with a standing vote to honor Rio de Janeiro's City Councillor Marielle Franco, as well as the six trans people who have been murdered this year: Christa Leigh Steele-Knudslien, 42 years old; Viccky Gutierrez, 33 years old; Tonya Harvey, 35 years old; Celine Walker, 36 years old; Phylicia Mitchell, 45 years old; Zakaria Fry, 28 years old and others who have been killed because they stood for justice but whose voices and legacy remain with us today.

(Duly seconded.)

COUNCIL PRESIDENT CLARKE: It's been moved and properly seconded. Shall we stand.

(All Councilmembers standing.)

COUNCIL PRESIDENT CLARKE: That resolution is adopted.

(Applause.)

CHIEF CLERK: And a resolution
Recognizing and Congratulating the University of Pennsylvania Men's Basketball Team for an Outstanding Season in which it Earned the Title of 2018 Ivy League Champions and Competed in the 2018 NCAA Men's Basketball Tournament, introduced by Councilman Oh.

COUNCIL PRESIDENT CLARKE: The Chair recognizes Councilman Oh.

COUNCILMAN OH: Thank you. I move for the adoption of the resolution.

(Duly seconded.)

COUNCIL PRESIDENT CLARKE: It's been moved and properly seconded.

All those in favor say aye.

(Aye.)

COUNCIL PRESIDENT CLARKE: Those opposed?

(No response.)

COUNCIL PRESIDENT CLARKE: The ayes have it, and that resolution is adopted.

CHIEF CLERK: There are no other resolutions on the Final Passage Calendar, Mr. President.

COUNCIL PRESIDENT CLARKE:

Thank you very much, Mr. Decker.

That concludes our Calendar for today.

Are there any speeches on the part of the minority?

The Chair recognizes Councilman Taubenberger.

COUNCILMAN TAUBENBERGER: Thank you, Council President. Even though this is the second day of spring, there's over 10 inches of snow on the ground, but also people in this Chamber know I'm a little bit of a historian and I also like to know a little bit about the weather, as having two classes in meteorology at Penn State University.

Just for the record, on March 21st, 1958, 60 years ago to the day yesterday, there was a similar storm producing over 10 inches of snow on the Philadelphia streets. But really what comes down to this, I was interviewed, very delightfully so, on WeatherNation just yesterday, but what -- they asked if the City were ready, and I said absolutely. I think we have one of the finest Streets Department in all the nation. This is Philadelphia. We have the equipment, we have the manpower, woman power, and we also know what to do. We have institutional knowledge. So I want to commend those men and women who while we were safe in our houses cuddled up, which is a great thing, working hard, tirelessly giving of their time to benefit so we can all go to work today, it's greatly appreciated by this Councilman and also I think the entire Council as well, and all City employees appreciate their fine work. Thank you very much.

COUNCIL PRESIDENT CLARKE:

Thank you, Councilman.

The Chair recognizes

Councilwoman Blackwell.

COUNCILWOMAN BLACKWELL: Thank

you, Mr. President. We try to keep up with our Parking Authority bill and weekly try to check on numbers. This is the first day I'm mentioning it in Council, but as all of you know, that we have until the end of April for people to sign up so that you can take advantage of the amnesty program. And what we want you to know is that so far 3,947 people have signed up. Now, money that the City would not have received is $349,821.

So we ask those who are listening, please, we only have until the end of April, sign up, make an agreement. You can pay 10 percent down and have two years to pay for it. If you don't know if you have any and you think before 2013, maybe there was another tag number, post the $50. It's worth it so that if anything comes up, then you won't be fined.

Thank you very much.

COUNCIL PRESIDENT CLARKE:

Thank you, Councilwoman.
The Chair recognizes Councilwoman Parker.

COUNCILWOMAN PARKER: Thank you, Mr. President. And I just want to follow up on Councilwoman Blackwell and say a hearty thank you, Councilwoman Blackwell, for your leadership on this issue. I'm very impressed by hearing the numbers that you just put on the record for us.

I want you to know, Councilwoman, that on this past Monday, we held a meeting for residents in the Ninth District, who came to our meeting with the hopes of learning about the amnesty program and how they could in fact take advantage of it. Councilwoman, we had over 300 people respond and over 350 people to attend at the Finley Recreation Center at Upsal and Mansfield, and we're working on trying to get some done now that we've had this one. So, okay, you got to get to the other side of Broad Street now. So we're working on it, but that's only thanks to your leadership and our colleagues. So thank you.

COUNCILWOMAN BLACKWELL: Thank you.

COUNCIL PRESIDENT CLARKE: Thank you, Councilwoman.

The Chair recognizes Councilwoman Quinones-Sanchez.

COUNCILWOMAN SANCHEZ: Thank you, Mr. President. As we wrap up Women's Month, I just wanted to particularly acknowledge the women of Council, Councilwoman Blondell Reynolds Brown, for bringing us all together around the legislative initiatives, and I want to thank all the enlightened men who have been attending the many events this month as we celebrate women, whether it's the Chamber of Commerce's Paradigm Award, the sororities and others.

It's really important that the Me Too phenomenon really does become a movement. And while I am encouraged, as Councilwoman Parker and I attended the Women's March, that there's a recognition by women that we need to do more than march, that we need to work better together, be better allies together, it's encouraging to have 500 women running for office this year, and hopefully some of those women will be victorious, because women support those women, because women will write checks to those women.

But I particularly want to thank people like my mom, you know, the single mothers, the caretakers, all of those women who carry us every single day. It's not easy being in public service. Not complaining. It is what it is. We can take it. But I just think it's hugely important, and that's -- as I mentioned when Monica Malpass was here, the many activities, Councilwoman Blondell Reynolds has sponsored many events for young women and others, we all have a responsibility to each other, and I want to leave the month of March feeling more than just encouraged, but really feeling hopeful about the future of the United States in light of what's going on in the White House, as Michael Coard said, with the orange man in the red tie. And I really do feel like we're living in reality TV every single day when I watch those stories, and really concerned about the message that it's sending to young women who watch TV every day about what we allow men to get away with in today's society.

So hopefully those 500 women will come join the struggle and change the course of where we're going politically.

Thank you, Mr. President.

COUNCIL PRESIDENT CLARKE:

Thank you, Councilwoman.

That concludes our speeches on behalf of the majority and minority.

With that, the Chair recognizes Councilwoman Reynolds Brown for a motion to adjourn.
3/22/18 - STATED - ADJOURNMENT

COUNCILWOMAN BROWN: Thank you, Mr. President. I move that Council stand adjourned until Thursday, April 5th, 2018 at 10:00 a.m.
(Duly seconded.)

COUNCIL PRESIDENT CLARKE:
Thank you. It has been moved and properly seconded that Council stand adjourned until Thursday, April 5th, 2018, 10:00 a.m.

All those in favor say aye.
(Aye.)

COUNCIL PRESIDENT CLARKE:
Those opposed?
(No response.)

COUNCIL PRESIDENT CLARKE: The ayes have it.

Thank you all very much.
