2 COUNCIL PRESIDENT CLARKE: Morning,
3 everyone. We are going to start. Thank you.
4 Members will take their seat. If all visitors
5 and guests will retire behind the rail, we can 6 get started.

7 To give our invocation this morning, the 8 Chair recognizes the Reverend Bonnie Camarda of 9 the Salvation Army. She is here today as the 10 guest of Councilwoman Quinones-Sanchez. I would 11 ask all guests, visitors and members to please 12 rise.

13 (Councilmembers, guests and visitors
14 rise.)

15 REVEREND CAMARDA: Good morning.

16 ("Morning.")

17 REVEREND CAMARDA: Today I want to just 18 read some scripture. It says: "God Knows Your 19 Name."

20 In Isaiah 49:16 say: I have written 21 your name on my hand. What a thought. Isn't it 22 your name -- each one of you name is in God's 23 hands. Your name is in God's lips. Maybe you 24 see your name in some special places, on an 25 award or a diploma. But to see that your name

1 is in God's hand and God's lips, my, could it
2 be? Or perhaps you have never seen your name
3 honored and you can't remember when you had it
4 spoken with kindness. If so, it may be more 5 difficult for you to believe that God knows your 6 name. But he does. Written on his hand, spoken 7 by his mouth, whispered by his lips, your name.

8 "Father, we just thank you because you 9 know our name. You know each of us from the 10 inside out. You form us in our mother's womb 11 and you know who we are and what we do.

12 "Lord, I pray that you will continue 13 blessing every member of this assembly. That 14 you will give them wisdom as they make decision.
15 That there will be transparency and integrity as 16 never before. We thank you for the life and the 17 commitment to serve you in the City of 18 Philadelphia.

19 "God knows you by name. Amen."

20 COUNCIL PRESIDENT CLARKE: Amen.

21 Thank you so much, Reverend.

22 Council be at ease.

23 (Council at ease.)

24 COUNCIL PRESIDENT CLARKE: Thank you.

25 Thank you very much.

2 Approval of the Journal of the meeting of 3 Thursday, January 24, 2019.

4 And the Chair recognizes Councilman
5 Greenlee.

6 COUNCILMAN GREENLEE: Thank you,
7 Mr. President. I move that the journal --

8 COUNCIL PRESIDENT CLARKE: Hold on,
9 Councilman. Folks, going to ask you all to 10 please keep it down. Or better yet, keep quiet.

11 Thank you.
12 Councilman.

13 COUNCILMAN GREENLEE: Thank you,
14 Mr. President. I move that the Journal of the 15 meeting of Thursday, January 24, 2019 be 16 approved.

17 COUNCIL PRESIDENT CLARKE: Is there a 18 second?

19 (Duly seconded.)

20 COUNCIL PRESIDENT CLARKE: It's been 21 moved and seconded.

22 All those in favor?

23 (Ayes.)

24 COUNCIL PRESIDENT CLARKE: Those
25 opposed?

1 (No opposition.)

2 COUNCIL PRESIDENT CLARKE: Ayes have it.

3 Journal is approved.

4 And our next order of business is the 5 request for Leave of Absence.

6 And the Chair recognizes Councilman
7 Greenlee.

8 COUNCILMAN GREENLEE: Thank you,
9 Mr. President. On behalf of the Majority, leave 10 is requested for Councilman Henon.

11 COUNCIL PRESIDENT CLARKE: Thank you,
12 Councilman. Leave shall be granted. And the 13 Chair thanks the gentleman.

14 And the Chair now recognizes Councilman 15 Oh.

16 COUNCILMAN OH: Thank you very much,
17 Council President. On behalf of the Minority, 18 there are no requests for leave of absence.

19 COUNCIL PRESIDENT CLARKE: Chair thanks
20 the gentleman.

21 (Momentary pause in proceedings.)

22 Thank you. At this time, I would like
23 to take -- I'm, sorry. Chair recognizes 24 Councilwoman Gym.

25 COUNCILWOMAN GYM: Thank you very much,

1 Council President.

2 I just wanted to take a moment to 3 welcome a hero here who is joining us today in 4 City Council. Kenyette Burnes is one of the 5 founders of the "Mute R. Kelly Movement." She 6 is visiting us here from Atlanta, Georgia. Will 7 be speaking a little bit later, and will be 8 doing a luncheon with her later this afternoon.
9 But I'd just like to have her stand up and be 10 recognized here in Philadelphia where we welcome 11 her.

12 (Applause.)

13 COUNCIL PRESIDENT CLARKE: Thank you.

14 Now I will give my welcome. I would 15 like to welcome everyone who has come down 16 today, particularly given the fact that it's 17 around, what, 7, 8 degrees outside? You are 18 truly committed to experiencing what it's like 19 to have government in the City of Philadelphia.
20 So, I really appreciate you being here. And I 21 hope you enjoy your day here, so much so that 22 you come back again.

23 Again, thank you so much.

24 Chair recognizing Councilman Green.

25 COUNCILMAN GREEN: Thank you, Council

1 President.

2 On behalf of Councilwoman Blackwell and 3 myself, we would like to welcome the Student
4 Council Officers of the Belmont Charter High
5 School. If they can stand and be recognized.

6 (Students rise.)

7 COUNCIL PRESIDENT CLARKE: All right.

8 (Applause.)

9 COUNCILMAN GREEN: They are here to 10 learn about the civic process. My 11 understanding, that they as a body meet on a 12 weekly basis, engage in different issues that 13 impact not only the students at the school but 14 also surrounding community. They have been 15 engaged with Councilwoman Blackwell on a number 16 of issues. And they are located in her Council 17 district.

18 And it's a pleasure on her behalf and 19 myself to welcome them to City Council. They 20 are truly the future political leaders of our 21 City.

22 COUNCIL PRESIDENT CLARKE: Thank you,
23 Councilman. I was -- they are on the case. I 24 was -- I was asked a question by one of the 25 students in the Caucus Room about our process as

1 it relates to "hold/okay" on the calendar. So,
2 they are on the case and doing their job.

3 Thank you. Welcome you guys.
4 Appreciate you being here today.

5 At this time, Chair recognizing 6 Councilman Jones who will present a resolution 7 recognizing the Please Touch Museum. Would 8 Trish Wellenbach and those accompanying her
9 please join the Councilman at the podium.

10 And joining the Councilman we have 11 Councilman Oh, Councilman Greenlee, Councilman 12 Domb and Councilwoman Reynolds Brown and 13 Councilman Taubenbeger and Councilwoman Gym and 14 Councilwoman Blackwell.

15 (Councilmembers and guests approach
16 podium.)

17 COUNCILMAN JONES: Good morning,
18 everyone.

19 COUNCIL PRESIDENT CLARKE: Morning.

20 COUNCILMAN JONES: Oh, come on. Good 21 morning, everyone.

23 COUNCILMAN JONES: Much better.

24 Councilman Johnson wakes us up with his morning
25 greetings in Caucus. So, I figured I would add

1 that component today.

2 It is my privilege and honor to welcome
3 from the Fourth District the Please Touch
4 Museum. But they are a regional asset. So 5 every Councilperson in every district in every 6 county surrounding Philadelphia is a part of 7 this particular presentation. And the reason we 8 are honoring them today is that they are opening 9 up an exhibit, an art exhibit, which I think has 10 more relevance today than in recent history in 11 our country considering the leadership in the 12 White House. I'm just going to -- I'm just 13 going to say that.

14 It's "America to Zanzibar." And it
15 chronicles the historical art exhibits and art 16 pictures that particularly illustrate Muslims in 17 America. And when I thought about this 18 presentation, I quickly went to two pieces of 19 art that mean something to me.

20 One of them, and I put it on all my 21 colleague's desk, is Yaro Muhammad. And he is, 22 if you follow his story, a former slave. And as 23 history predicts, he was from a wealthy family 24 in the west coast of Africa. Because -- they 25 believed that because he knew how to read and

1 write in Arabic with -- but also some English.
2 That made him valuable when he was enslaved in 3 Annapolis. He eventually, good news was, he 4 bought his freedom.

5 But I would have never known this had it 6 not been chronicled in a piece of art. I would 7 have never known that contribution and that 8 struggle, that sojourn in the diaspora of 9 slavery that included many tens of thousands of 10 Muslims who came from countries in Africa who 11 celebrated and were religious in that regard.

12 Second one, and this is the Moor. And 13 this was particularly important to me. When I
14 decided to run for office, I worked for a 15 corporation called the Philadelphia Commercial 16 Development Corporation. And I have done a 17 fairly good job. And the Board of Director 18 said, well, if this doesn't work out for you
19 Jones, you can come back and work for us. So, I 20 told them no. Fill the position.

21 The reason I did that was because of his 22 inspiration. When the Moors went into Spain, 23 the chieftain immediately said burn the ships.
24 And his followers said, well, wait a minute, how 25 are we getting home? So, he pointed at Madrid

1 and said, that is your new home. And that 2 exhibited a certain degree of commitment to the 3 task at hand.

4 And so, those were two pieces of art.
5 And they are hundreds and hundreds of 6 illustrations in our American history that shows 7 the contributions in trials and tribulations of 8 Muslims in America. And again, I will end on 9 what I said in the beginning. More than ever, 10 it is important to recognize that contribution.
11 Jewish Americans and Muslim Americans are the 12 most persecuted religions in the world. And 13 that is a fact.

14 And so, when we learn to -- quickly at 15 childhood learn to understand each other not 16 demonize each other, learn to play things like 17 games together like at the Please Touch, it 18 creates a lifetime of understanding that serves 19 us throughout our adulthood. And that's why 20 this is important.

21 And therefore, it is my pleasure
22 recognizing and congratulating Trish
23 Willinboro -- Wellenbach, sorry. She's going to 24 get me -- and the Please Touch Museum on opening
25 their exhibit, American to Zanzibar, a vibrant

1 exhibition celebrating the diversity of modern 2 and historic Muslim communities across
3 Philadelphia and the world through art, 4 technology and interactive programming which 5 will be opened to the public from February 2 to 6 September 19, 2019.

7 COUNCILWOMAN BLACKWELL: Thank you.

8 Whereas, the American to Zanzibar
9 exhibit is the first project under the Please
10 Touch Museum's new initiative to address
11 relevant social issues and represent 12 Philadelphia's culturally diverse populations;

14 COUNCILWOMAN REYNOLDS BROWN: Whereas, 15 the purpose of the exhibit is to counter the 16 prejudice American Muslims increasingly face, 17 open broader dialogue for families around
18 diversity, promote understanding and acceptance
19 and serve as the basis for future exhibition 20 development around other contemporary social 21 issues; and

22 COUNCILWOMAN GYM: Whereas, Philadelphia
23 has one of the largest Muslim populations per 24 capita of any other city in the United States as 25 there are an estimated 200,000 Muslim residents

1 and over 50 mosques throughout the City.
2 African-American Muslims constitute roughly a 3 third of American Muslim population and 4 85 percent of Philadelphia's Muslim population;
5 and

6 COUNCILMAN DOMB: Whereas, the exhibit
7 will highlight the uniqueness of these 8 populations through voices from the community
9 and of humor from Philadelphia's Muslim 10 households as well as artwork, performances, 11 collaboration with Muslim leaders and 12 partnerships with local museums; and

13 COUNCILMAN GREENLEE: Whereas, the goals 14 of the exhibit are to introduce children and 15 their families to diversity and commonalities in 16 contemporary Muslim communities in Philadelphia
17 and across the country and the world, provide a 18 safe and positive space for children and their 19 families to discuss Islam, demonstrate how 20 cultures have peacefully coexisted for centuries 21 and prepare children to become global citizens;

23 COUNCILMAN OH: Whereas, the Please 24 Touch Museum will partner with research labs and 25 academic institutions to develop a research

1 component to the exhibition that will measure
2 its impact in areas including empathy, prejudice 3 and respect for diversity in young children as 4 well as the impact of parent engagement in 5 helping children understand and deal with 6 contemporary social issues; now therefore be it

7 COUNCILMAN TAUBENBERGER: Resolved for 8 the Council of the City of Philadelphia that it
9 hereby recognizes and congratulates Trish 10 Wellenbach and the Please Touch Museum for 11 opening of their America to Zanzibar exhibit 12 which will run from February 2, 2019 to 13 September 19, 2019.

14 COUNCILMAN GREEN: Further resolve that 15 in gross, copy of this resolution be presented 16 to Trish Wellenbach and Please Touch Museum as 17 further evidence of the sincere appreciation and 18 admiration of this legislative body.

19 (Applause.)

20 COUNCIL PRESIDENT CLARKE: And the Chair
21 recognizes Ms. Wellenbach for remarks.

22 MS. WELLENBACH: Thank you. Good
23 morning. In case you didn't know, I am Trish 24 Wellenbach. And thank you.

25 And I want to invite all the students

1 from Belmont Charter School to come and 2 experience this exhibit. I will personally give 3 you the tour. You call my office, and we will 4 walk you through.

5 So on behalf of the Board of Trustees
6 and the staff of our beloved Please Touch
7 Museum, it is my honor to accept this resolution
8 acknowledging America to Zanzibar, Muslim
9 Cultures Near and Far. A groundbreaking 10 exhibition that, as you heard, celebrates the 11 contribution of Muslim communities from ancient 12 times to present day from around the globe to 13 the City of Philadelphia.

14 Thank you, Councilman Curtis Jones, our 15 dear friend and advocate for introducing this 16 resolution to City Council and for your tireless 17 support of our Please Touch Museum. You are a 18 steadfast champion for children. You believe in 19 the importance of early childhood learning, and 20 you inspire us to continue in our mission to be 21 a leading 21st Century children's museum that 22 prepares children for success in the classroom 23 and in life.

24 Please Touch Museum is the fabric of our 25 entire -- is part of the fabric of our entire

1 City. We value your connection to all the 2 communities of Philadelphia and commit to 3 continue to hold ourselves accountable to one of 4 our guiding principles. To be responsible 5 stewards of Memorial Hall and to be good
6 neighbors to the Bark Side Community.

7 Thank you to Councilwoman Blondell
8 Reynolds Brown for joining Councilman Jones on 9 the drafting of this resolution and for your 10 endless, never waiving advocacy for 11 Philadelphia's children and their families
12 including your staunch advocacy for early 13 childhood education as well as arts and culture, 14 and house those connected can create more and 15 vibrant and engaged children.

16 Council President Darrell Clarke and all 17 the Members of Council, thank you for sharing in 18 our belief that experience and understanding 19 other cultures is a way to promote acceptance
20 and help prepare children to be global citizens 21 who work, play and live in an increasingly 22 interconnected and interdependent 21st century
23 world. We are grateful to our visionary 24 sponsors for encouraging us to think boldly and 25 consider the infinite possibilities that could

1 be created through America to Zanzibar, the Pew
2 Center for Arts and Heritage, PECO, the Epsilon
3 Foundation, Bank of America, the Pennsylvania
4 Historic Museum Commission, the Connelly
5 Foundation, the Christian R. and Mary F.
6 Lindback Foundation, and most especially the 7 Mayor's Fund for Philadelphia.

8 Through this process, we engaged over 9 two dozen scholars, artists, community religious 10 leaders with deep ties to the Muslim community 11 to join us in this work, some of whom are here
12 bearing witness to this moment. They were a 13 critical part of the team that worked on the 14 programming, audience development, community
15 engagement and outreach. We invited community 16 in to teach us how to do this.

17 The exhibit is a joy to experience. We 18 are grateful to the Rosenbach at the Free
19 Library and the Penn Museum who loaned us
20 objects such as tiles and ceramic and water
21 colors and a Koran that dates back to 1852, 24 22 years older than the museum that we reside in.
23 We engaged artists who created magnificent 24 pieces of art that were inspired by children in 25 communities who did work around art together and

1 taught adult artists how to make art. And 2 possibly most importantly, out of respect to the 3 Muslim community and their faith practice, we 4 have created a prayer room, a safe space where 5 Muslim children and their families can see their 6 faith reflected with joy and respect, and where 7 all visitors, regardless of their faith, can 8 explore and learn about the Muslim faith in a 9 joyful way without fear.

10 As you heard, America to Zanzibar will 11 be at our museum for seven months. We expect 12 tens of thousands of people will experience the 13 exhibition and programming and leave with a new 14 appreciation for how diversity brings 15 opportunity, and how embracing difference helps 16 us all become better citizens. How proud we are 17 as a museum to have our work recognized by City 18 Council in this way.

19 From the beginning, we believed that 20 America to Zanzibar would have deep impact on 21 the Please Touch Museum. What we believe now, 22 two years later, is that it has the potential to 23 be transformative, not just for our museum but 24 for our City and beyond.

25 Thank you for this honor. Have a lovely

1 day.

2 (Applause.)

3 COUNCILMAN JONES: Mr. President, I
4 would be remiss if I didn't recognize the fact 5 that Councilwoman Parker has a mosque that she 6 visits all the time, Councilman Johnson has one 7 that he visits, Councilwoman Bass has one or two 8 actually in her district, and Maria Sanchez has 9 several, as well. In recognizing that, I should 10 have probably had everybody up here reading 11 this. But I wanted to put that on the record.

12 Thank you.

13 COUNCIL PRESIDENT CLARKE: Thank you.

14 Council be at ease.

15 (Council at ease.)

16 COUNCIL PRESIDENT CLARKE: Thank you.

17 Thank you and congratulations.

18 At this time, the Chair recognizes
19 Councilwoman Reynolds Brown who will present a 20 resolution honoring the African-American 21 Children's Book Project. Would Vanesse Lloyd
22 Sgambati and those accompanying her, please, 23 join the Councilwoman at the podium.

24 And we have Councilman Derek Green, 25 Councilman Jones, Councilman Johnson and

1 Councilwoman Parker and Councilwoman
2 Quinones-Sanchez and Councilwoman Bass and 3 Councilwoman Blackwell.

4 (Councilmembers and guests approach
5 podium.)

6 COUNCILWOMAN REYNOLDS BROWN: Thank you,
7 Mr. President.

8 The children's -- children's book 9 industry is one that is huge, has an 10 international footprint and makes a difference 11 we know every day in the lives of children. For 12 the last five years, I have gone to the 13 International Book Fair at the Jacob Javits
14 Center in New York City. And more than 15 two-thirds of that space there is devoted to 16 agents and publishers and illustrators who care
17 about children's books. So for Vanesse Lloyd 18 Sgambati to embrace this world 27 years ago is 19 remarkable and simply speaks to the unwavering 20 commitment to literacy when it comes to 21 children.

22 In that spirit, this morning we are 23 honoring the African-American Children's Book 24 Project on the occasion of its 27th Annual 25 African-American Children's Book Fair.

1 Whereas, Philadelphia struggles with a 2 double digit illiteracy rate among those 16 and 3 under, underscoring the extreme importance of 4 providing children with early opportunities to 5 learn to read and, beyond that, to develop a 6 love for reading. And whereas, studies show
7 that children who read outside of core 8 schoolwork tend to excel in other aspects of 9 their lives. Book fairs provide children with a 10 venue to explore their curiosity and interest, 11 and motivates children to read and read and read 12 by offering them a wide selection of different 13 books to browse; and

14 COUNCILMAN JOHNSON: Whereas, 15 Philadelphia's home to a diverse community of 16 writers, representing varying cultures, 17 background and experiences that match those of 18 the City residents.

19 And whereas, the African-American 20 Children's Book Fair is one of the oldest and 21 largest single day events for African-American 22 children's books in the country with an average 23 annual attendance of over 3,500 children,
24 parents and friends. Rich or poor, no one 25 leaves empty handed as the books themselves are

1 priced at a level where they are more affordable 2 and posters, book and raffle books are 3 distributed free of charge to attend these; and

4 COUNCILMAN GREEN: Whereas, the Book
5 Fair highlights books and enlighten and empower 6 children and feature some of the most exciting 7 children's authors from the multicultural 8 literary community. Its goal is not merely to 9 get children reading but to foster in them a 10 life long passion for the activity that enriches 11 their lives. The event is a product of the 12 African-American Children's Book project.

13 And whereas, Vanesse Lloyd Sgambati is 14 the founder and CEO of the African-American 15 Children's Book Project. As a literary 16 consultant, she is a much sought after expert on 17 trends in diverse books and how to incorporate 18 these books into homes, schools and libraries.
19 She created the Book Fair because she believed 20 that all children should have access to books
21 that reflect their images. With the Book Fair 22 in its 27th year, it is clear that 23 Ms. Sgambati's vision has resonated within the 24 Philadelphia community; and

25 COUNCILWOMAN BLACKWELL: Whereas, this

1 year's Book Fair will have over 36 authors and 2 illustrators in attendance and will especially 3 feature two celebrated authors, Susan Robeson
4 and T.R. Simon.

5 And whereas, one of this year's two 6 featured authors is Susan Robeson who will 7 highlight her new book, "Grandpa Stops a War."
8 Robeson, the great -- excuse me. Robeson, the 9 granddaughter of renowned American musician,
10 actor and activist Paul Robeson is an award
11 winning documentary film and television 12 producer, an adjunct professor in film and 13 communications and the executive director of the 14 Paul Robeson Foundation; and

15 COUNCILMAN JOHNSON: Grandpa Stops a War
16 is based on a true story of Paul Robeson's visit 17 to the front lines in the Spanish Civil War to 18 sing to soldiers, illustrated by Rod Brown.
19 Grandpa Stops a War is Susan Robeson's first 20 picture book for a young -- for young readers.
21 And living in London with his family during that 22 time of the Spanish Civil War, Paul Robeson 23 became disturbed by the reports of the struggles 24 suffered by those affected by the conflict. And 25 collected Monday, food and clothing for Spanish

1 children. Robeson eventually decided to visit
2 the front where he sang African-American 3 spirituals and songs of freedom with such 4 feeling that soldiers on both sides were moved.

5 As Susan Robeson writes, in Grandpa
6 Stops a War, while grandpa sang, there was 7 peace; and

8 COUNCILWOMAN BASS: Whereas, renowned 9 children's author T.R. Simon will be featured at 10 the Book Fair. Most recently, Simon authored 11 Zora and Me: The Cursed Ground, which has 12 received star reviews from numerous publications 13 and is a junior library guild selection.

14 And whereas, Zora and Me: The cursed 15 Ground continues the fictionalized account of 16 Zora Neale Hurston childhood adventure that 17 Simon began in her first book, Zora and Me.
18 Co-authored with Victoria Bond, Zora and Me won 19 the Coretta Scott King/John Steptoe Award for 20 new talent, and was nominated for an Edgar Award 21 for the best mystery in the category of Juvenile 22 Fiction.

23 And whereas, in Zora and Me: The Cursed
24 Ground, young Zora and her friend Carrie Brown
25 come across their friend Mr. Polk injured

1 outside his cabin. Zora and Carrie soon find 2 themselves embroiled in a decades old mystery
3 involving an enslaved girl named Lucia. In the 4 words of Kirkus Reviews, Zora and Me: The Curse
5 Ground is an extraordinary, richly imagined
6 coming of age story about a young Zora Neale 7 Hurston, the long cruel reach of slavery and the 8 power of community; and

9 COUNCILWOMAN PARKER: Whereas, two 10 additional individuals will be honored for their 11 extraordinary support of children's literacy in 12 Philadelphia, they are Angela Foreshaw-Rouse and 13 Grace Rustia of the AARP Pennsylvania office.

14 And whereas, Angela Foreshaw-Rouse is 15 the manager of state operations and community 16 outreach for AARP Pennsylvania. There she 17 oversees the implementation of state and 18 national campaigns, volunteer and member 19 engagement and community outreach throughout 20 Pennsylvania. Her work in communications
21 outreach has been recognized by elected 22 officials and community leaders while educating 23 the 50-plus population in AARP's 1.8 million 24 members in Pennsylvania.

25 And whereas, Grace Rustia is the

1 associate state director for multicultural
2 outreach for AARP Pennsylvania. She is an 3 accomplished advocate for multicultural and 4 diverse communities with years of experience and 5 public affairs, community development and 6 management. Grace also holds an appointed seat 7 as the Vice Chair of the Mayor's Commission on 8 Asian-American Affairs for which she serves as 9 an adviser on issues and policies pertinent to 10 Asian communities in the City of Philadelphia;

12 COUNCILWOMAN QUINONES-SANCHEZ: The 2019
13 African-American Children's Book Fair will take 14 place this Saturday, February 2 at Community 15 College of Philadelphia from 1:00 to 4:00 p.m.
16 This year's event is produced by Literary Media
17 and Publishing Consultants.

18 And whereas, Council has no doubt that 19 this year's iteration of the Book Fair will meet 20 all of the goals and expectations inspired by 21 its history of excellence. We encourage all of 22 the City's residents, young and not so young, to 23 discover for the first time or once again the 24 wonders to be found in the pages of a good book.
25 And must I say, this is one of the best

1 organized events that I attend. Very, very 2 worthwhile. So please, please let's support.

3 Therefore be it resolved, that by the 4 Council of the City of Philadelphia, that we 5 hereby honor the African-American Children's 6 Book Project on the occasion of its 27th Annual 7 African-American Children's Book Fair.

8 Congratulations to sponsors, volunteers
9 and everyone.

10 (Applause.)

11 COUNCIL PRESIDENT CLARKE: And the Chair
12 recognizes Ms. Sgambati.

13 MS. SGAMBATI: Thank you so much. It is 14 with great joy that I kick off -- it is 15 January 31. But if you see me, you know that 16 Black History Month is upon us. And it is with 17 great joy that I kick off this month to 18 celebrate 27 years. We make it happen on a wing 19 and a prayer.

20 But it is with much sadness because 21 Blondell Reynolds Brown came to me. And 22 I know -- I don't like people to keep 23 acknowledging me when I'm doing the Book Fair 24 because we do these things because this is what 25 we supposed to do. But Blondell came to me and

1 said, what can I do. And she recognized that 2 having these people over the past 15 years
3 acknowledged in City Council was important to 4 the City. Because you know what, we have some 5 of the best and the brightest not only locally, 6 but nationally. And we needed to introduce 7 these people to you so that you can take that 8 information back to your community.

9 I always come with some free books.
10 These are truly the best and the brightest.
11 This is the 27th year. And I keep say on a wing 12 and a prayer. We don't have any real government 13 funding. But through the support of Cherelle
14 Parker -- and if I say familiar, I know them, 15 okay? We practically grew up with each other.
16 Cherelle is probably saying, I'm not that old.
17 Cherelle Parker, Blondell Reynolds Brown, Jannie
18 Blackwell, Kenyatta Johnson, Derek Green and 19 Councilman Allan Domb -- and I hope I am 20 pronouncing his name correctly -- have all 21 supported this effort.

22 Children come not only from the greater 23 Philadelphia region but from around the country.
24 We have 36 African-American children's authors
25 and illustrators. These are the people winning

1 the awards. These are people who are being read
2 by not only African-American children but all
3 children, making the New York Times Best Sellers
4 List. So, I am excited to present them.

5 I am not going to take up a lot of time.
6 Because you know, I'm fabulous. I can start 7 talking about me and all my great 8 accomplishments. But I am not going to do that 9 this morning. You have to come to the Book Fair 10 to hear the footnotes. You know, because I am 11 on my way to Bologna. I'll be making 12 presentations about African-American children's 13 book not only in London but Paris and London, 14 also. I am pretty global.

15 But the four people behind me have made 16 this event and a success. And I am going to 17 give their name. And they'll come up and make 18 brief remarks. And I hope that you will take 19 the time, and especially if you are running for 20 an elected office, you will take the time on 21 Saturday to sashay over to Community College.
22 Because if you have any doubts about the 23 possibilities of the children in this City, come 24 to that event. The possibilities, I am hopeful, 25 they come from all corners of the City.

1 So without further ado, I am going to 2 introduce Ms. Robeson, Susan Robeson will come
3 to the mic, then T.R. Simon who is a/k/a Tanya 4 McKinnon whose mother Hildegard is with her,
5 they came in from New York this morning. And by 6 the way, Tanya McKinnon is one of the top
7 literary agents in the country. Her books
8 always land on the New York Times Best Sellers 9 List. And I'm on bended knees trying to do an 10 Aretha Franklin. Hope she won't call me back on 11 that one. And then we also have Angela
12 Foreshaw-Rouse who is with AARP, and Grace
13 Rustia who've been very helpful.

14 And finally -- I said I was going to 15 take my seat. I just wanted to acknowledge a 16 couple of people: Wells Fargo, PECO, Senior -- 17 Always Best Care Senior Services, PECO -- I 18 mentioned that -- AARP, Independence First and 19 especially NBC10, Telemundo 62 and the Comcast 20 family.

21 Now here is something else if you want
22 to come on Saturday. The first 500 children
23 will get a brand new book, not some throwaway
24 book. There will be a book of the guest authors 25 and illustrators. And if you have educators in

1 your loop, all those sponsors will be giving 2 away brand new books of our guest authors and 3 illustrators. Thank you for the time, because I 4 can't be fabulous without y'all.

5 (Applause.)

6 MS. ROBESON: Thank you so much for your 7 leadership and this honor. I really, I'm deeply
8 moved. I'm sure my grandfather is smiling down 9 on us wherever he is. What you are doing is 10 helping to keep his legacy alive. He's a beacon 11 in these times, a beacon and a standard bearer.
12 I think particularly for two things, speaking 13 truth to power and what it means to be a 14 really -- a truly engaged citizen of the world
15 or global citizen.

16 So, thank you again for this honor. And 17 I hope to see all of you on Saturday. And peace 18 and blessings.

19 (Applause.)

20 MS. SIMON: Hi. I'm T.R. Simon. I am
21 deeply honored to be here. Thank you
22 Councilwoman Blondell Reynolds Brown. Thank you
23 so much. And Vanesse Lloyds Sgambati, thank you 24 so much for the Book Fair.

25 I write for children because when I was

1 young, I came alive through literature. And it
2 shaped who I am today, and it shaped the way in 3 which I thought about the world. And when I was 4 young, we didn't have as many books by young 5 people -- about young people of color that we do
6 today. And I think it's a blessing that today 7 we can have an entire fair with 36 prominent 8 authors who are writing about the experience of 9 children of all ethnicities and walks of life.
10 I think that's a great blessing and a great 11 opportunity for young people.

12 Thank you so much.

13 (Applause.)

14 MS. RUSTIA: Good morning, everyone. I
15 am Grace Rustia. I am the Multicultural
16 Director of the State of Pennsylvania from AARP.
17 Thank you so much on behalf of AARP and our 18 38 million members, thank you so much
19 Councilwoman Reynolds Brown and, of course, 20 Vanesse Lloyd Sgambati for this honor and for 21 the collaboration and partnership that we do 22 with AARP. And for highlighting the -- and 23 celebrating the Black History Month.

24 Thank you for this honor.

25 (Applause.)

1 MS. FORESHAW-ROUSE: Good morning,
2 everyone. I'm Angela Foreshaw-Rouse. And I am
3 the State Operations and Community Outreach 4 Director for AARP in Pennsylvania. On behalf of 5 our 1.8 million members across Pennsylvania, we 6 are honored. And we thank humbly to our 7 Councilwoman Blondell Reynolds Brown and all
8 members of City Council for their support over 9 the years for AARP Pennsylvania right here in 10 Philadelphia as we work really hard to advocate 11 on behalf of people 50 and older and their 12 families to make sure people have affordable 13 healthcare, access to wealth and living their 14 best life in this society.

15 We thank Vanesse Lloyd Sgambati for her 16 commitment to education, intergenerational 17 education, that it's not just commemorating 18 Black History Month but the work continues 365 19 days of the year. So we just, again, encourage 20 everyone to come out and participate, education 21 for all ages.

22 Thank you so much.

23 (Applause.)

24 COUNCIL PRESIDENT CLARKE: Thank you.

25 Council will be at ease.

1 (Council at ease.)

22 fund the Community College of Philadelphia as 23 required by state law.

24 COUNCIL PRESIDENT CLARKE: Chair
25 recognizes Councilman Oh.

1 COUNCILMAN OH: Thank you very much,
2 Council President. There are many things this 3 body deals with many times reactively to 4 problems that come before us, but also 5 proactively. I think we can all agree that one 6 of the ways that we can deal with many of the 7 problems we face -- violence, homelessness, 8 addiction -- is by providing people the 9 opportunity to become the kind of people that 10 they would like to be. Public education, 11 critically important. And part of that is the 12 wonderful institution that we have Community
13 College of Philadelphia.

14 There are 27,000 students who attend
15 Community College. And there they can get a 16 two-year degree. They can take additional 17 courses. They can get a four-year degree. In 18 its inception, Community College under state law
19 is to be funded one-third by the students, 20 one-third by the City and one-third by the 21 State. In fact, the students are bearing 55
22 percent of the cost, the State only provides 24
23 percent and the City only 19 percent. Of all 24 the things the City should be providing money
25 for, Community College is one that it really

1 should be providing in terms of our obligations
2 as legislators and representatives of this City.

3 With that, I thank Councilman -- 4 Councilwoman Blackwell for working together with 5 me in this body to investigate how we will be 6 able to establish a more responsible plan for 7 stabilizing the funding of Community College so
8 that people in our City can get a good
9 education. With today's cost of tuition,
10 Community College is excellent for education, 11 job training and other great opportunities.

12 Thank you very much.

13 COUNCIL PRESIDENT CLARKE: Thank you,
14 Councilman. That will be on today's calendar.

15 That concludes our introduction of bills
16 and resolutions. And our next order of business

19 Bass for a report from the Committee on Parks, 20 Recreation and Cultural Affairs.

5 'City-County Consolidation,' by amending the 6 Chief Assessment Officer's authorization to set 7 standards for the valuation of properties for 8 taxation purposes," respectfully reports it has 9 considered the same and returns the attached
10 bill to Council with a favorable recommendation.

11 COUNCIL PRESIDENT CLARKE: Chair again
12 recognizes Councilman Johnson.

13 COUNCILMAN JOHNSON: Thank you,
14 Mr. President. I move that the Rules of Council 15 be suspended so as to permit first reading this 16 day of Bill No. 170467.

18 COUNCIL PRESIDENT CLARKE: Thank you.
19 It has been moved and properly seconded that the 20 rules of Council be suspended so as to permit
21 first reading this day of Bill No. 170467.

22 All those in favor, say aye?

23 (Ayes.)

24 COUNCIL PRESIDENT CLARKE: Those
25 opposed?

1 (No opposition.)

2 COUNCIL PRESIDENT CLARKE: Ayes have it.

3 And this bill will be placed on our First 4 Reading Calendar today.

5 Our next order of business is 6 consideration of the Calendar. I note that the 7 bills just reported from committee with the 8 suspension of the rules have been deemed to have 9 had the first reading. They will be placed on 10 our second reading and Final Passage Calendar at 11 our next session of the Council.

12 There are no additional bills on the 13 First Reading Calendar. The Chair recognizes 14 Councilman Greenlee for the purposes of the 15 calling up resolutions and bills that are on the 16 Final Passage Calendar today.

17 COUNCILMAN GREENLEE: Thank you,
18 Mr. President. The following resolutions and 19 bills are being called up from Second Reading
20 and Final Passage Calendar today: Nos. 190021, 21 190022, 190036, 190037 and 180888. All other 22 resolutions and bills are being held.

23 COUNCIL PRESIDENT CLARKE: Thank you.
24 Before considering these bills and resolutions 25 that are on our Final Passage Calendar today, we

1 will have our Public Comment Session. It will 2 go as follows. If you have not already done so,
3 and you are in interested in testifying on a 4 bill or resolution that is on the Final Passage 5 Calendar today, you may sign up at the table to 6 my left.

7 When your name is called, you will go
8 into the middle of the Council Chambers. There 9 is a podium. There is a device on that podium.
10 When the light turns green on that device, it 11 will be your time to speak. When the light 12 turns yellow, you will have 30 seconds to 13 conclude your remarks. When the light turns 14 red, we would ask that you please adhere to our 15 guidelines an conclude your remarks.

16 Want to thank you very much for your 17 anticipated cooperation.

18 Mr. Decker, please, call the first name 19 on the list.

20 CHIEF CLERK: Dr. Monique Howard
21 commenting on 190037.

22 (Approaches podium.)

23 COUNCIL PRESIDENT CLARKE: Good morning.

24 DR. HOWARD: Good morning.

25 Good morning, City Council President and

1 City Council Members. My name is Dr. Monique
2 Howard. I'm the Executive Director of the Women
3 Organized Against Rape, WOAR, the only rape
4 crisis center in the City of Philadelphia. I
5 want to thank Councilmembers Helen Gym, Blondell
6 Reynolds Brown, Derek Green and Cherelle Parker
7 for their introduction of the resolution that 8 declares solidarity and support for the Mute R.
9 Kelly campaign.

10 As a nation, we were witness to the 11 narratives of the many survivors of sexual 12 assault and abuse that were depicted in the 13 Lifetime Docu Series, Surviving R. Kelly. For 14 three consecutive nights, we heard and saw six 15 hours of the horror stories of rape, child 16 sexual abuse, sexual grooming and his sex cult.
17 R. Kelly is the true definition of a sexual 18 predator. He pries on mostly young girls, those 19 who are vulnerable, easy to manipulation and 20 most likely star struck. Some of his victims 21 may have experienced abuse in previous 22 relationships.

23 His story is not a new story. We have 24 heard about his crimes for decades. His crimes 25 are outlined in his music and his moniker as the

1 Pied Piper, clearly explains what he does and 2 how he operates. How did this happen for 3 decades? The answer is twofold: Race and 4 money. Robert Kelly's victims were young Black 5 girls, under valued and under cared for.

6 According to a report from the Center on 7 Poverty and Inequality at Georgetown Law, adults
8 view Black girls as less innocent and more adult 9 like than their White peers, especially in the 10 age range of 5 to 14. Survey participants
11 perceive that Black girls need less nurturing, 12 less protection, to be supported less, comforted 13 less and are more independent, know more about 14 adult topic and know more about sex. These 15 results apply that even if these girl's told the 16 truth, no one would believe them.

17 Chance the rapper, a musician who has 18 worked with R. Kelly was quoted as saying: "I 19 didn't value the accuser's stories because they 20 were Black women." These are the beliefs of R.
21 Kelly relied upon to protect his behavior. We 22 must believe survivors. We must make sure that 23 Black girls know that they matter and that they 24 will be believed.

25 And let us not forget money. Again,

1 decades of allegations and crimes, yet he still 2 sells out venues and makes money for critics, 3 for cities and for other musicians. WOAR has 4 been providing services since 1971. In 2018, we 5 received 5,019 telephone calls to the hotline.
6 We have provided counseling service to 439
7 children who were victims of child sexual abuse.
8 These children will suffer post traumatic stress 9 disorder, drug abuse and other major depressive 10 opportunities.

11 Thank you very much for introducing the 12 resolution. Again, WOAR supports Mute R. Kelly
13 we believe survivors. We believe in support
14 Black girls. We work hard to make sure 15 Philadelphia is a safe City.

16 Thank you.

17 (Applause.)

18 COUNCIL PRESIDENT CLARKE: Thank you for 19 your testimony.

20 CHIEF CLERK: LaQuisha Anthony
21 commenting on 190036.

22 (Approaches podium.)

23 COUNCIL PRESIDENT CLARKE: Good morning.

24 MS. ANTHONY: Good morning.

25 Good morning, City Council and all that

1 are present today. Thank you specifically to 2 Councilmembers Helen Gym, Cherelle Parker,
3 Blondell Reynolds and Derek Green for standing 4 in solidarity for support from the Mute R. Kelly 5 Campaign.

6 My name is LaQuisha Anthony. And I'm a
7 local organizer, the Founder of Voice Victory 8 Over Inconceivable Cowardly Experiences, a 9 sexual abuse survivor network and the education
10 and training specialist at Woman Organized 11 Against Rape. But most of all, I'm a survivor 12 of childhood sexual abuse and campus assault.

13 Although my story isn't one where the 14 villain is a famous person, but it is someone 15 who leveraged their influence over my 16 impressionable mind. It's a privilege to be 17 here today and to stand firmly with this 18 resolution sending the message to predators
19 everywhere that our City will not tolerate this 20 behavior. But more importantly, that the voice
21 of survivors and children matter. Banning R.
22 Kelly sends the message that revenue is not more 23 important than the safety and care of our women
24 and girls. More specifically, that Black women 25 and girls matter.

1 Malcolm X said this, that the most 2 disrespected women in America -- person in 3 America is a Black woman. The most unprotected 4 women in America is the Black woman. The most 5 neglected person in America is the Black women.
6 But yet today as a Black woman and a survivor, 7 this is a great step in making me feel 8 protected, respected, cared for and supported.

9 Banning R. Kelly would offer similar 10 sentiments of others. It takes more than just 11 this though. The efforts of groups like WOAR
12 and Voice and other community partners to end 13 sexual violence in our community, it takes 14 dismantling systematic protections and 15 allowances that allow predators to remain in 16 their positions of power and influence. Today
17 is the day we shatter those systems, making a 18 declaration to all predators that they are not 19 allowed in this City.

20 And I thank you all today.

21 COUNCIL PRESIDENT CLARKE: Thank you.

22 (Applause.)

23 CHIEF CLERK: Kenyette Barnes commenting
24 on 190036.

25 (Approaches podium.)

1 COUNCIL PRESIDENT CLARKE: Good morning.

2 MS. BARNES: Good morning. My name is 3 Kenyette Barnes. And I am the National 4 Co-Founder of Mute R. Kelly. I just want to say 5 thank you to the ladies who speak before me.
6 Thank you to Councilwoman Gym, Mr. Chairman.

7 I flew all the way here in 6 degree
8 weather from Atlanta Georgia to stand in this 9 space today to say thank you. Thank you as 10 political body for taking a stance and saying 11 without a doubt that Black girls matter.

12 When my cofounder Oronike Odeleye and I 13 decided over coffee and mutual outrage in 14 Atlanta, Georgia to launch the Mute R. Kelly 15 movement, it was a modest venture. We simply 16 wanted to stop the concert in Atlanta. At that 17 point, we gained the unanimous approval and 18 support of the Fulton County Board of 19 Commissioners and the outrage and the activism
20 of Mute R. Kelly began around the country.

21 While we were focused on our concert,
22 five concerts around the country canceled.
23 Survivors began to come forward. Our phone 24 lines were inundated. Help us. Help us. How 25 can we do this? In 15 months, the Mute R. Kelly

1 movement has 12 chapters including two chapters
2 internationally in Amsterdam and Germany. We 3 have had eight active protests and concerts -- 4 we have canceled 12 concerts in an estimated 5 $1.75 million in lost revenue.

6 What we are clear is that this movement
7 is about accountability. This movement is about 8 acknowledging that Black girls matter. This 9 movement is about saying enough is enough, and 10 no longer can we allow people to rest on hero 11 worship and have the capital to buy themselves 12 out of accountability.

13 A very quick story before my time is up.
14 I do have a Philadelphia connection. I am an 15 alumni of Temple University and I worked at 16 CHOP. Yes. I'm an Owl. In 2002 I worked at 17 CHOP and founded a program through the Youth
18 Study Center that looked at high risk behaviors
19 among sexual active youth. And my original, I 20 don't know my friend is with me. I'm out of 21 time. I know. But it was at that point that I 22 started to educate people about R. Kelly.

23 2002, I was muting R. Kelly then. 2019, 24 I am on that mission. And I thank you from the 25 bottom of my heart for supporting our movement.

1 (Applause.)

2 COUNCIL PRESIDENT CLARKE: Thank you for
3 your testimony.

4 CHIEF CLERK: Pastor Keon Gerow
5 commenting on 190036.

6 PASTOR GEROW: I'm Pastor Keon Gerow of 7 the Catalyst Church. It was, in fact, Edmund 8 Burke who put pen to paper and scribed the 9 words: The only thing necessary for the triumph 10 of evil is that good men do nothing.

11 I am a father. I am a father of a 12 daughter. I refuse to do nothing. Having 13 viewed "Dream Hampton: Surviving R. Kelly," I 14 was inexplicably disgusted. I took pause at how 15 such a troubled person could get away with such 16 alleged repetitive atrocities. I shutter to 17 imagine how the lives of those young girls would 18 be forever altered, never to be the same again.
19 The brilliant Black sister Dream Hampton 20 produced a documentary as a tool to 21 systematically dismantle gender violence and 22 give voice to the vulnerable.

23 However, long before the documentary, a 24 plethora of courageous women, one who just spoke 25 right before me, were speaking truth about the

1 atrocities of R. Kelly who built an ecosystem
2 around his predation. Much like most movements, 3 the supports of oppressed people groups, the 4 ground swell of supportive voices often moves at 5 horse-and-buggy pace before justice is won due 6 to often overwhelmingly tremendous opposition.
7 In this case, insert fame and fortune and power, 8 victim blaming and our desire to reimagine and 9 reappropriate the demons of many of our "heroes" 10 at the expense of their gift, and you have a 11 recipe for decades long depravity.

12 With bated breath I watched the 13 documentary. Afterwards, I merely contacted the 14 point person, filed trip to sexual assault
15 ministry. Within 24 hours, a panel discussion
16 was planned to address the issues. Panelists 17 included Movita Johnson-Harrell, Director of 18 Victim Services for the DA's Office; State Rep 19 Morgan Cephas was doing great work around the 20 subject on the state level; Teresa White-Walston
21 from Women Organized Against Rape; LaQuisha
22 Anthony, Founder of Voice, an incredible
23 organization that offers resources and support 24 for victims of sexual violence.

25 We were intentional about hosting

1 discussion during the time of our usual midweek
2 worship Bible study hour because it was just 3 that important. Therapists were on standby, 4 resources were shared, conversation was had,
5 hearts were healed, lives were changed.

6 Today's resolution does not directly ban
7 R. Kelly from Philadelphia obviously as a 8 citizen. However, it is a strong statement of 9 support and solidarity with a plethora of voices 10 across the country who have done with pedophiles 11 parading on platforms for praise. Enough is 12 enough. This is a strong statement of support 13 for young girls who have felt disrespected, 14 disgraced and disgusted, made to feel ignored,
15 unrepresented, uncared for, unprotected, 16 unwanted and less than human.

17 Lastly, let's be clear. No one is 18 beating up on Black men. This has nothing to do 19 with race. It has everything to do with rape.
20 The truth be told, R. Kelly and Harvey Weinstein 21 should be cell mates. This is not an attack on 22 Black men, it is an attack on rape culture that 23 mutes victims but gives voices to perpetrators.
24 Let's believe and support Black women. Let's 25 believe and support Black women, Brown women,

1 White women. Let's believe and support women.

2 Let's stop muting victims. It's time
3 to, #MuteRKelly.

4 COUNCIL PRESIDENT CLARKE: Thank for 5 your testimony.

6 (Applause.)

7 CHIEF CLERK: Marissa Johnson-Valenzuela
8 commenting on 170408.

9 (Approaches podium.)

10 COUNCIL PRESIDENT CLARKE: Good
11 afternoon.

12 MS. JOHNSON-VALENZUELA: Good afternoon.
13 Sorry I wasn't ready.

14 Hi. My name is Marissa
15 Johnson-Valenzuela. And I'm a full-time faculty 16 member at Community College of Philadelphia.
17 I'm going to try to do this pivot thing I was 18 told to do.

19 As a professor of English at CCP, to 20 often I have to navigate the combative 21 relationship to education that too many of our 22 students arrive with. While I appreciate that 23 they know how, that they are advocating for 24 themselves, I'd rather spend our time together
25 on their education instead of having to overcome

1 their previous negative experiences with 2 education. So, I support this bill in that 3 spirit.

4 The criminalization of our youth in 5 their school system is -- what's the word?
6 There are so many words for it -- a travesty.
7 We are -- I'm also here today with colleagues of 8 mine to urge you to help CCP faculty and staff 9 who have been working without a contract for 10 over two years. This week we continue to 11 negotiate.

12 Finally, the Mayor's Office has gotten 13 involved. But we need help from City Council to 14 pressure them to first off keep CCP's
15 Administration from illegally imposing the worst 16 contract in the history of the college, which 17 they have told the Mayor and many administrators
18 they want to do. They even sent an email to all 19 employees that alluded to this.

20 Two, advocate for three fair contracts.
21 We don't work at CCP to get rich. I promise 22 you. My bank account attests to that. But we 23 simply can't afford to go backwards. The 24 proposed cuts and pay raises are an insult to 25 our labor and to our students.

1 Three, already CCP faculty teach more
2 students in more classes than Suburban Philly
3 Community Colleges teach in five classes. They 4 have smaller class sizes. And our students who 5 are almost all Philadelphia Public School 6 graduates looking to succeed and participate in 7 a changing economy deserve the best we can give 8 them. Also, please support Councilman Oh's 9 resolution to support CCP. Our students should 10 not pay more for their education. Our faculty 11 and staff should not be short changed. The 12 money is there. Clearly, our Administration
13 needs help finding it. It's not in our low 14 paychecks. Don't force more great faculty and 15 staff to leave.

16 You have folders with stars on your 17 tables that go into more detail about the facts 18 and what we are asking you to do. Thank you for 19 your time. And again, I do support this bill.

20 Thank you.

21 (Applause.)

22 COUNCIL PRESIDENT CLARKE: Thank you for
23 your testimony.

24 CHIEF CLERK: Joe Danihel commenting on 25 190022, 18105A, 181044.

2 afternoon.

3 (Approaches podium.)

4 MR. DANIHEL: Good afternoon.

5 This is official decree of the people
6 and writ of mandamus pro rata; as such, requires 7 immediate action remedy.

8 Every week Council, Mayor, Governor and 9 others transfer private property to the 10 government, probably illegally. News reporters
11 fail to report this. Journalists and the Walt 12 Disney Company tell many amusing fictitious 13 stories. Unfortunately, the news is required to 14 keep the people factually informed according to 15 the founding fathers.

16 Global and national news fails to inform 17 the Governor that their government steals
18 peoples homes. Choosing instead to cover a 19 light news story from Florida. And government 20 handing out Joseph Gerber Awards should not make 21 a reporter of facts proud. To instruct our 22 representatives, people require facts, not 23 opinions. Oath violators that would use their 24 office to plunder the people must be held 25 accountable. While my home and my just

1 compensation were stolen and several trials by 2 jury were denied. Twenty-five years of 3 non-reporting this have left the governed
4 uninformed of those constitutional law
5 violations.

6 The Constitution require immediate 7 remedy of this breach of all, breach of 8 fiduciary duty. Your oath of office requires 9 you to act or face prison. 42 USC 1982, 1983, 10 1985, 1986, 1987, 18 USC 241, 242, 2381 and 11 2384; PA Constitution, Article I, Sections 1
12 through 28, 26 PA CSAs 703, 705, 708, 709, 711, 13 712, 713, 716, 902 and other laws listed in 14 SCOTUS 15-8965, 14-1330, 14-4056 appear 15 violated.

16 I call on the federal and commonwealth
17 governments to perform their constitutional 18 obligations, to investigate and prosecute all 19 involved in the theft and illegal deed transfer 20 of my home 1038 West Wyoming Avenue, the denial
21 of God given 42 USC 1982 property rights for 25
22 years is egregious, extraordinary, oath
23 violating and requires immediate remedy.

24 A just government must obey the rule of 25 law. This color-of-law government must have its

1 charter to govern revoked until a 2 constitutionally compliant government is 3 installed. Public servants cannot refuse their 4 sworn duty to act any more than a fireman can 5 refuse to fight a fire. The sovereign people 6 require oath constitution law be enforced; and 7 jail is required for all who violate oath, 8 constitution or law.

9 I remind Council it takes a lot of 10 cooperation to create an allow this monumental 11 corruption.

12 COUNCIL PRESIDENT CLARKE: Thank you for 13 your testimony, sir.

14 CHIEF CLERK: Nyambi Royster commenting 15 on 170408.

16 (Approaches podium.)

18 afternoon.

19 MS. ROYSTER: Good afternoon. My name
20 is Nyambi Royster. I didn't actually plan to 21 speak, but when I saw the agenda, I felt 22 compelled to. And so, I would just like to ask 23 that Council would support the resolution for 24 the -- to stop suspending children from grades 25 one through five.

1 Recently, I experienced the death of my 2 husband of 22 years, which we have four 3 children. And he passed two years ago. And our 4 youngest child was in kindergarten going into 5 first grade. And I was working for the 6 Philadelphia Housing Authority. It was 7 devastating. I took time away from work so that 8 I can be full time for my children.

9 I let the school know what was going on 10 immediately and to let them know that I was 11 there at their disposal. If I needed to cut out 12 pictures, take the children to the bathroom or 13 whatever, I wanted to be available, to be of 14 support for my child. And instead, I was kept 15 out of the classroom. I was told that maybe I 16 could volunteer in a computer lab. But my son 17 was experiencing trauma as a result of that.
18 And I was very present from the time that it 19 began all the way until I needed to remove my 20 son from the school because it became very 21 punitive.

22 He was -- everything that you can 23 imagine happened, including them wanting to test 24 him for mental health. However, his academic 25 record did not support their request for wanting

1 to do so. There were many times that I felt 2 bullied into almost allowing them to run the 3 type of testing on him that they wanted to. In 4 which if they did do an emotional disturbance 5 test, it would come back positive because the 6 entire household was emotionally disturbed
7 following the death of Daniel.

8 And so, what I would like to say in 9 addition to that is when I refused to have them 10 to test my son, DHS was called to my home within 11 two to three days for neglect. And that's very 12 problematic. If I wasn't able to advocate for 13 myself and for my children, they would be in the 14 hands of the State because I'm trying to protect 15 them.

16 So, there was no support that was there 17 for me at the time they wanted me to sign the 18 document so they could test him. The document 19 stated that there should be advocacy list or 20 something there to help me navigate through that 21 system, and that was not included. So, I was in 22 a room with professionals telling me that there 23 was something wrong with my son, telling me that 24 there was something wrong with me, shoving 25 papers for me to sign. And it was very

1 emotional. And then I get a visit from DHS at 2 nine o'clock in the evening that I needed to let 3 in. Because if I had chose, I don't know why 4 you're here, then that would have started 5 another, you know, snowball effect.

6 So, I just want to support that. And I
7 also want to say I'm going to continue to be 8 very active. From that, I have chose to remove 9 my children from the school system and home
10 school them myself with no actual plan in place.
11 But I knew that that was not a place that my 12 children were going to thrive and flourish.

13 Thank you for your time.

14 COUNCIL PRESIDENT CLARKE: Thank you,
15 ma'am, for your testimony.

16 CHIEF CLERK: There are no speakers in 17 the Public Comment list, Mr. President.

18 COUNCIL PRESIDENT CLARKE: Thank you
19 very much. And with that, we will continue with 20 our calendar.

21 Mr. Decker, please read the title of 22 190021.

23 CHIEF CLERK: A resolution calling on 24 the United States Congress and the President of 25 the United States to protect vulnerable citizens

1 by funding the Supplemental Nutrition Assistance
2 Program, and other food -- federal food
3 assistance programs as soon as possible.

4 COUNCIL PRESIDENT CLARKE: Chair
5 recognizes Councilwoman Blackwell.

6 COUNCILWOMAN BLACKWELL: Thank you,
7 Mr. President. I move for the adoption of the 8 resolution.

10 COUNCIL PRESIDENT CLARKE: It's been
11 moved and properly seconded.

12 All those in favor say aye.

13 (Ayes.)

14 COUNCIL PRESIDENT CLARKE: Those
15 opposed?

16 (No opposition.)

17 COUNCIL PRESIDENT CLARKE: Ayes have it.
18 Resolution 190021 is adopted.

19 Mr. Decker, 190022.

20 CHIEF CLERK: A resolution authorizing 21 the Philadelphia Redevelopment Authority to 22 execute and deliver to the Philadelphia Land
23 Bank deeds conveying title to certain properties
24 located in the Fifth Councilmanic District.

25 COUNCIL PRESIDENT CLARKE: Chair

1 recognizes Councilman Greenlee.

2 COUNCILMAN GREENLEE: Thank you,
3 Mr. President. I move for the adoption of the 4 resolution.

5 (Duly seconded.)

6 COUNCIL PRESIDENT CLARKE: It's been
7 moved and properly seconded.

8 All those in favor, say aye.

9 (Ayes.)

10 COUNCIL PRESIDENT CLARKE: Those
11 opposed?

12 (No opposition.)

13 COUNCIL PRESIDENT CLARKE: Ayes have it.
14 Resolution 190022 is adopted.

15 Mr. Decker, 190036.

16 CHIEF CLERK: A resolution declaring
17 solidarity with and support for the #MuteRKelly 18 Campaign, a grassroots movement that seeks to 19 remedy decades of silence surrounding the sexual 20 abuse of young Black women and girls by denying 21 R. Kelly a public platform within the City of 22 Philadelphia and nationwide.

23 COUNCIL PRESIDENT CLARKE: Chair
24 recognizes Councilwoman Gym.

1 Council President.

2 So, we are living in an incredible
3 movement when we can say once for all that we 4 are no longer accepting a system that protects 5 powerful men at the expense of women. And for 6 decades, R. Kelly survivors have been trying to 7 get someone, anyone to pay attention. And now 8 we are saying that we are paying attention.

9 I want to thank my Councilmembers and my 10 co-sponsors on this bill, especially 11 Councilmember Reynolds Brown and Parker and 12 Blackwell as well as Councilmembers Greenlee, 13 Domb and Taubenberger for paying attention.

14 We don't have to accept a future where 15 rape is accepted, rapers get away with their 16 crimes and women are blames for their own sexual 17 assaults. And that this resolution is 18 fundamentally about stating a public declaration
19 that R. Kelly and sexual predators like him
20 don't belong in a public sphere with public 21 support. And that this symbolic act of 22 solidarity puts all sexual predators on notice.

23 We are standing up for women,
24 particularly Black women, who receive less news 25 coverage whether they are missing or whether

1 they are victims of rape or whether they are 2 young women needing our help. And I especially 3 want to thank Kenyette Barnes who came here all 4 the way from Atlanta to testify and uplift this 5 movement and her fellow cofounder Oronike
6 Odeleye.

7 I want to thank our courageous
8 institutions like WOAR. I want to thank 9 Dr. Monique Howard, Pastor Gerow and Ms. Anthony 10 for speaking so powerfully, much better than I 11 can do, and to every survivor who speaks out 12 across the country but especially in this City.
13 This resolution honors your courage. It honors 14 your resilience and your power to demand justice 15 on behalf of all of us.

16 With that, I move for the passage of 17 this resolution.

18 (Duly seconded.)

19 COUNCIL PRESIDENT CLARKE: Thank you.
20 It's been moved and properly second.

21 All those in favor, say aye.

22 (Ayes.)

23 COUNCIL PRESIDENT CLARKE: Those
24 opposed?

25 (No opposition.)

1 COUNCIL PRESIDENT CLARKE: Ayes have it.

2 190036 is adopted.

3 Mr. Decker, 190037.

4 CHIEF CLERK: A resolution also naming
5 Madison Street between Gaul and Chatham Streets
6 as "Tommy Dunbar Way."

7 COUNCIL PRESIDENT CLARKE: Chair
8 recognizes Councilman Squilla.

9 COUNCILMAN SQUILLA: Thank you,
10 Mr. President. I move for the adoption.

12 COUNCIL PRESIDENT CLARKE: It's been
13 moved and properly seconded.

14 All those in favor, say aye.

15 (Ayes.)

16 COUNCIL PRESIDENT CLARKE: Those
17 opposed?

18 (No opposition.)

19 COUNCIL PRESIDENT CLARKE: Ayes have it.
20 190037 is adopted.

21 Mr. Decker, please read the title of 22 180888.

23 CHIEF CLERK: An ordinance amending
24 Title 6 of The Philadelphia Code, entitled 25 "Health Code," by adding a new Chapter 6-1200,

1 entitled "Pharmaceutical Sales and Marketing
2 Practices," to provide for registration of 3 pharmaceutical manufacturer agents and certain 4 other requirements; and to prohibit gifts by 5 pharmaceutical manufacturers and their agents to 6 healthcare practitioners.

7 COUNCIL PRESIDENT CLARKE: So, it wasn't 8 clear in the Caucus. Is it a go or is it an 9 amendment?

10 COUNCILMAN GREENLEE: I think I said
11 amendment.

12 COUNCIL PRESIDENT CLARKE: I thought I 13 heard somebody say it was a go. It's an 14 amendment. All right. Okay.

23 are the most reasonable that we can do working

9 COUNCIL PRESIDENT CLARKE: Speeches on 10 behalf of the Majority?

11 Chair recognizes Councilwoman Reynolds
12 Brown.

14 Mr. President.

15 I learned early in my career that the 16 delicate balance of mentoring someone is not 17 creating them in your own image but giving them
18 the opportunity to create themselves. I 19 constantly remind my team that we are what we 20 repeatedly do. Therefore, excellence is not an 21 act, it must be a habit.

22 When we recruit or acquire competent,
23 committed, devoted staff who are not average or 24 mediocre -- those are four letter words -- their 25 excellent work helps us serve the citizens of

1 Philadelphia more effectively. I have been very 2 lucky in that I have had the exceptional 3 professionals on my team over the last 19 years.
4 In fact, my office has been a talent factory for 5 cultivating and growing young professionals.
6 All of the members of my team, without 7 exception, have moved on and moved up into 8 positions of leadership and responsibility
9 making a difference all across Philadelphia 10 region in corporate Philadelphia, the legal 11 community, and higher education institutions and 12 the non-profit sector.

13 These include superstars like my first 14 Chief of Staff, Silvia Pinel Marjaro, who had to 15 leave; David Ford, who is now at University of 16 the Sciences; Joe Meed, Chief of Staff of 17 LaSalle University; Kellan White, please stand,
18 with the City Controller's Office; Haniyyah
19 Sharpe Brown, now firecracker over at the School 20 District; and my most recent departure of 21 Samantha Pearson who left to become the Chief of 22 Staff of State Representative Mary Isaacson.

23 I remind all of my staff, when you see 24 an opportunity and you are prepared for the 25 opportunity, you must carpe diem. Seize the 1 moment, do it well and represent excellently.

2 This morning, I want to share with my 3 colleagues and her peers that we have yet
4 another staffer who will be joining the alumni 5 club of Team Councilwoman BRB. She, too, will 6 be gone without the E. This young lady joined 7 our team as a volunteer in 1999. Volunteer.
8 She hit the ground running. She later worked as 9 a graduate intern while at West Chester 10 University in 2006. She joined as a staffer in 11 2008. And she has served in every position in 12 my office, growing every step of the way 13 excellently.

14 She is intelligent, a Girls High Girl.
15 She's eager, hard working and ambitious. More 16 importantly, she has always embraced the clear 17 purpose and the principled values of our office.
18 She has been exceedingly loyal to the team and 19 has served with honor and distinction. In 20 short, even members of the Administration have 21 stated that Katherine Gilmore-Richardson is a 22 rock star.

23 Consider this, summer 2018, she was one 24 of 80 women from around the county admitted to 25 the distinguished Yale University's Women's

1 Campaign School. She was one of four from the 2 southeastern region. More recently, she was 3 voted by her peers to serve as Vice President of 4 the Philadelphia Democrats. She is prepared and 5 willing to serve.

6 On this day of City Council, I say thank 7 you to my Chief of Staff for your service over 8 the last ten years. With ten years working 9 inside government, inside City Council on an 10 intimate up close and personal basis, tomorrow 11 will be her last day as she -- as it is with 12 great anticipation and a joyful heart that we 13 encourage her to pursue a new opportunity.

14 Councilman Jones, like you, I know what 15 time it is. Councilwoman Maria
16 Quinones-Sanchez, like Jason Dawkins who you
17 mentored, like Representative Morgan Cephas,
18 like representative Donna Bullock, like 19 representative Joanne McClinton or recent 20 elected representative Malcolm Kenyatta.
21 Katherine Gilmore-Richardson has the head to 22 know, the heart to feel and the readiness to 23 serve. Her work ethic stands above mine. How 24 about that.

25 Thank you, more importantly, Kathy, for

1 always treating people with kindness, with 2 dignity and with respect. Those attributes will 3 carry you far. And as you tell our team on a 4 daily basis, we journey on.

5 Good luck Katherine Gilmore-Richardson.

6 Thank you, Mr. President.

7 (Applause.)

8 COUNCIL PRESIDENT CLARKE: Thank you,
9 Councilwoman. See you around. Thank you.

10 Chair recognizes Councilwoman Blackwell.

11 COUNCILWOMAN BLACKWELL: Thank you.

12 I, certainly, want to applaud the 13 statements just made. I did not mention it
14 during the resolution, but I knew Dave Glancey 15 very well. As Chair of the party, obviously 16 worked for Penn, so I worked with him until he 17 got sick. And I didn't know he was sick enough 18 to pass away.

19 But I felt compelled to certainly thank 20 all of those he served. Say how sorry I am to 21 his family and all those with whom he worked.
22 And God bless him well.

23 COUNCIL PRESIDENT CLARKE: Thank you,
24 Councilwoman.

25 Chair recognizes Councilman Domb.

1 COUNCILMAN DOMB: Thank you, Council
2 President. I would be remiss if I didn't speak
3 for 30 seconds on the Earned Income Tax Credit.

4 COUNCIL PRESIDENT CLARKE: I was 5 wondering what was going on.

6 COUNCILMAN DOMB: But I just want to 7 remind everybody that we still leave close to a 8 hundred million dollars. Of the four hundred 9 thousand people in our City who are in poverty, 10 10 percent, 40,000 are eligible for refunds now.
11 Just to give the specifics, single parent
12 earning $44,000 of income with two children
13 under the age of 17 or a couple earning $51,000 14 of income, two children under the age of 17 are 15 entitled to checks from the Federal Government 16 up to $6,000 per year and can file back three 17 additional years, 24,000.

18 The average refund is 2,500. If you
19 know of anyone who is earning seven and a 20 quarter to $22 an hour and has children under 21 the age of 17, this is an opportunity to get 22 federal money.

23 Thank you very much.

24 COUNCIL PRESIDENT CLARKE: Thank you,
25 Councilman. Thank you for continuing to beat

1 that drum.

2 Chair recognizes Councilman Greenlee.

3 COUNCILMAN GREENLEE: Thank you,
4 Mr. President. Very quickly. If I could -- I 5 just wanted to add to the -- an addendum to 6 Councilwoman Reynolds Brown list of staff
7 members who are now serving in Harrisburg. My 8 first legislative director was represented, 9 Kevin Boyle.

10 COUNCIL PRESIDENT CLARKE: That's right.

11 COUNCILMAN GREENLEE: So, I just want to 12 make sure he is on that list of the other 13 members of that illustrious list that the 14 Councilwoman read.

15 Thank you.

16 COUNCIL PRESIDENT CLARKE: Thank you.

17 Thank you, Councilwoman.

18 Councilman Johnson.

19 COUNCILMAN JOHNSON: Yeah. Well, also I 20 want to add to that illustrious list. Former 21 legal policy person for Councilwoman Marianne
22 Tasco who has joined this body whom I have known 23 for a significant period of time is Councilman 24 Derek Green.

25 COUNCIL PRESIDENT CLARKE: Hey, yeah.

1 Councilman, seems like he's always been here in 2 this capacity. You're right. Absolutely, 3 right.

4 That concludes our speeches. And with 5 that, I will ask Councilwoman Blondell Reynolds
6 Brown for a motion to adjourn.

7 COUNCILWOMAN REYNOLDS BROWN: Thank you,
8 Mr. President. I move that Council stand 9 adjourned until Thursday, February 7, 2019 at 10 10:00 a.m.

12 COUNCIL PRESIDENT CLARKE: Thank you.
13 It's been moved and properly second. Council
14 stand adjourned until Thursday, February 7, 15 2019.

16 All those in favor, say aye.

17 (Ayes.)

18 COUNCIL PRESIDENT CLARKE: Those
19 opposed?

20 (No opposition.)

21 COUNCIL PRESIDENT CLARKE: Thank you all 22 very much.

23 (State Meeting adjourned at 12:27 p.m.)
